

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

All students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with all school policies and regulations that govern the daily school routine during all school activities, whether they occur on or off school grounds. Students should expect consequences for failure to adhere to the school's Code of Conduct. The exact consequences for a given unacceptable behavior are at the discretion of the Head of School, in consultation with the involved teacher(s). Each case will be adjudicated based on the circumstances surrounding the infraction. Some behaviors and activities come with automatic consequences:

Party Policy Violation: consequences will be decided by Head of School

Dress Code Violation: see Dress Code description for consequences

Engaging in academic dishonesty, which includes, but is not limited to cheating and plagiarism: suspension

Leaving the school premises without permission of supervising school personnel: suspension

Using profane, obscene or other inappropriate language or gestures toward a staff member: suspension

Possession, use, or sale of any illicit substances (including alcohol, tobacco/vape, or narcotics) and their associated paraphernalia: suspension

Falsely activating a fire alarm, bomb threat or other disaster alarm: suspension.

Engaging in vandalism or other intentional damage to property or surroundings belonging to the school, students, staff, and others: suspension and compensation for damages

Theft: suspension

Tampering with, changing, or altering a record or document of a school by any method, including but not limited to, computer access or other electronic means: suspension

Possession or misuse of any harm-causing device: suspension

Harassment: sexual, physical, emotional (including bullying and cyber-bullying), verbal: suspension and/or expulsion

Continued Harassment: suspension and/or expulsion
