

Dear Parent(s),

From the minute your child came into your life, everything was different. And at that moment, you wanted to give your son or daughter the moon and the stars! Fast forward to now, where you find yourself facing new, unanticipated challenges and wondering how you can still give your child the best life has to offer. And that is where Republic Bank comes into the picture.

Republic Bank has partnered with Hill Top Preparatory School, Stratford Friends School, and the Woodlynde School to help you explore financing options for the education to meet your child's specific needs. All three schools are committed to working together with Republic Bank to support families like yours.

Dan Charyna, Vice President of Consumer Lending, is your dedicated and single point of contact. Dan visited all three schools and understands the unique mission of each one. Dan has many years of lending experience in the Greater Philadelphia region and is committed to providing you with:

- Stress-free processing - application through closing
- Unparalleled customer service
- Loan options* that may work for your situation:
