

SPECIAL EDUCATION TEACHING POSITIONS for SY 19-20 Perry Street Preparatory Public Charter School

About Perry Street Prep

Perry Street Prep is a 375+ elementary and middle school students in Northeast DC. We are a community of diverse learners, with students from all eight wards of the city, that builds relationships with families and empowers students to be college-ready and to thrive in a global society. Our goal is to provide every student, PreK-8th grade, with the knowledge, the abilities, the attitudes and the support they will need to succeed in college and beyond.

Perry Street Prep is a school on the rise! Our students' growth in reading and math outpaces peers in the District of Columbia and nationally and is amongst the highest in the District. We raised our score on the DC Public Charter School Board's Performance Management Framework (PMF) 30-points in the past four years, and we are on the cusp of becoming a Tier 1 school.

For additional information about Perry Street Prep, visit pspdc.org.

Teaching at Perry Street Prep

Special Education Teachers are responsible for delivering instruction to identified students with Individualized Education Plans (IEPs) in an inclusion setting and working to develop and manage a classroom environment that supports differentiated instruction and student progress. A teaching position at Perry Street Prep is a full-time, salaried, 10-month position.

Teachers at Perry Street Prep are responsible for the following:

- Collaborating with colleagues to develop and deliver specialized instruction in the classroom designed to help students meet grade-level standards and achieve personal learning goals
- Utilizing strong content knowledge to effectively present enticing and rigorous Common Core-aligned lessons
- Developing Individualized Learning Plans (IEPs) for students on assigned caseload
- Ensuring the records for each identified student are up to date and well-organized, and contain necessary progress notes and assessments
- Modifying assessments and classwork for students with special needs
- Assessing student progress against IEP goals

- Tracking and monitor assessment results in order to regularly refine teaching practices and design differentiated lesson plans
- Communicating with families regarding service delivery and student progress
- Other duties as assigned

Qualifications

Perry Street Prep is seeking educators with the following education and experience:

- Bachelor's degree from an accredited university required. Special education or master's degree preferred.
- Two or more years of teaching experience as an elementary or middle school special education teacher in an urban environment preferred
- Experience with co-teaching models preferred
- Experience writing and monitoring IEPs preferred

Compensation and Benefits

Perry Street Prep offers a competitive salary commensurate with experience and a comprehensive benefits package.

How to Apply

Do you believe that every child deserves the right to a high quality education? Do you want to prepare students for unlimited global opportunities? Apply today!

Click here join us as a Special Education Teacher.

NO PHONE CALLS PLEASE.

All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, age, sex, national origin or ancestry, marital status, veteran's status, or any other factor, which would constitute a violation of the D.C. Human Rights Act or other applicable laws or court order.