

The Sister M. Eloise Claire Kays, RSM Endowed Scholarship Application

Sister M. Eloise Kays, RSM was committed to the well-being of all the young people who were blessed to know her during her 56 year-career as an educator, administrator and advocate of Catholic education. Sister Eloise came to Union Catholic in 2000 as a freshman guidance counselor where she served students with enthusiasm, energy and great love until her sudden death in 2009. Sister Eloise looked for and found the good in every student, leaving behind a legacy of compassion and mercy that had a profound impact on her students and colleagues.

Candidates for The Sister M. Eloise Claire Kays Endowed Scholarship should practice compassion in their daily interactions with classmates and teachers at Union Catholic and within their own families and communities.

To apply for the Sister Eloise scholarship, an applicant must:

1. Be a rising sophomore at Union Catholic.
2. Write a 500-word essay explaining his/her personal commitment to practicing compassion and provide examples of how he/she demonstrates that commitment at UC, at home and in their community.

Essays and application forms must be submitted to School Counseling Assistant Mrs. Kelly Kahney by Friday, March 15.
