

Summer Required Reading Entering Second Grade 2018-2019

Students entering second grade are required to read 3 books, the one listed below and two Reading Counts books of their choice. (Please note: It is ok to assist your child if they find the book too difficult.)

Henry and Mudge and the Forever Sea

by Cynthia Rylant

Please be sure the 2 books of choice are age appropriate and list them below.

Title _____ Author _____

Title _____ Author _____

There will be no summer project assigned, however, upon arrival back at school in the fall the students will be required to take and pass the Reading Counts tests for all three books. Note: Please be sure there is a Reading Counts test for the 2 books of choice. You can check by going to <https://readingcountsbookexpert.tgds.hmhco.com/> and typing in the title of the book. If the book appears simply click on the title and it will open up the details of the book including a summary, reading level, lexile and points.

Enjoy the books and enjoy your summer!

Happy Reading!
Second Grade Teachers

"Research has shown that it is important for children to read on a daily basis during the summer to maintain and improve skills worked on during the school year."