

ED+ resources

Dear parents/guardians and families,

During this time of school closures, we want to encourage continuity of learning and inquiry. Below is a list of free additional resources, Ed+ resources, available for learning and engagement while your child/ren are at home, from online virtual libraries and courses to virtual fieldtrips. Please continue to check for updates on the school's website.

Warm regards,

Dr. Araya & the City Honors Faculty

One Stop Shop Khan Academy

Remote learning during school closures...

The Khan Academy is a non-profit educational organization that provides free video tutorials and interactive exercises. The Academy's declared mission is "changing education for the better by providing a free world-class education to anyone anywhere."

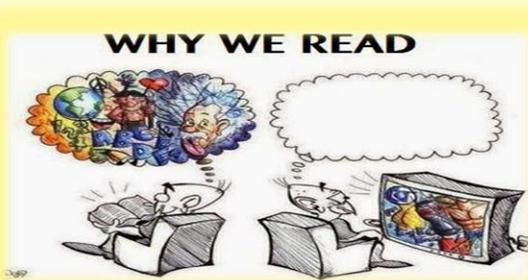

The lessons were conceived primarily for distance learning and can be especially helpful during school closures.

The online platform is having daily (weekdays) 9 am PST live streams on Facebook, YouTube and Twitter for students, parents, and teachers navigating school closures.

Courses available:

- » ARTS & HUMANITIES
- » ECONOMICS & FINANCE
- » MATH
- » SCIENCE & ENGINEERING
- » TEST PREP

*Sample daily schedules are also available.

LIBRARIES: The Virtual Option

Now that most local libraries and bookstores are closed, virtual options are available. Local libraries, such as the Inglewood Library, offer free access to e-books and audiobooks via Hoopla (with a library card*). OverDrive is another free resource to check out! Films and documentaries are available through Kanopy. And guess what? All of these on-line resources are free!

OverDrive - <https://www.overdrive.com/>

Enjoy e-books and audiobooks for free through your local public library.

Hoopla - <https://www.hoopladigital.com/>

Instantly borrow digital movies, music, eBooks and more, 24/7 with your library card.

Kanopy - <https://www.kanopy.com/>

Stream thousands of films for free, thanks to the generous support of your public library.

International/Local Virtual FIELD Trips

Many of your favorite museums already offer interactive exhibits online.

However, some have really gone the extra mile with Google Street View Tours.

Your kids can visit the Colosseum and the Palace of Versailles in the same day! The Metropolitan Opera is not able to continue live performances right now, so they are offering free nightly online streaming presentations of past shows.

Closer to home, the Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA) is offering a resource, LACMA @ Home, which provides enriching and inspiring content for students and parents to watch, listen, learn, read, and browse at HOME.
