

Summer Reading List for Saint Dominic's School

Sixth Grade:

All students are required to read:

The Magician's Nephew by C.S. Lewis

All students must also read two books from the list below. For one of these the student will fill out a brief traditional book report (see attached form). For the other, the student may choose to present in one of the following creative ways:

- a video book trailer (using imovie or windows movie maker).
  - The trailer should be 1-3min long, capture some of the important characters and/or events of the book and make the viewer want to read the book. Cliff hangers are recommended. N.B. Make sure to export the project file as a movie (mp4 if using windows) when finished and save it on a flashdrive. Ask google how to do this if unsure. If there is a film version of your book you may NOT use parts of the film to make your trailer.
- a book talk (write the script over the summer and present during class in the fall)
  - The book talk should be 2-3 minutes in length, present the major characters and setting and make the audience want to read the book. The opening of the talk should immediately capture the audience's attention and curiosity about the book.
- a visual collage with captions to summarize and evaluate the book.
- Rubrics for these assignments are overleaf

Anne of Green Gables by L. M. Montgomery

The Witch of Blackbird Pond by Elizabeth George Speare

The Hobbit by J.R.R. Tolkien

The Jungle Book by Rudyard Kipling

The Wind in the Willows by Kenneth Grahame

Where the Red Fern Grows by Wilson Rawls

A Little Princess by Frances Hodgson Burnett

The Call of the Wild by Jack London

A Wrinkle in Time by Madeleine L'Engle

Number the Stars by Lois Lowry

The Princess and the Goblin by George MacDonald

Or: One of the books may be a biography of a saint/ blessed. Mary Fadyan Windett has authored several saint biographies for children. Louis de Wohl has written several popular saint fiction novels including Lay Siege to Heaven (Catherine of Siena), Quiet Light (Thomas Aquinas), The Joyful Beggar (Saint Francis of Assisi) and Set All Afire (Saint Francis Xavier).

Reading books is an indispensable part of a solid education. A parent/ guardian will, therefore, be asked to write and sign a note indicating which of the books you chose and that you have read them.

Grading Rubric: Summer Reading Book Talk

	Max points	Your score
Appropriate length of time	3
Presents major characters	4
Presents the setting	3
Presents enough of the plot to give an idea of the book	4
Opening that "hooks" the audience	3
Engages the audience to want to read the book	3
Total	20

Grading Rubric: Summer Reading Book Trailer

	Max points	Your score
Appropriate length of time	3
Presents major characters	4
Presents enough of the plot to give an idea of the book	4
Easy to follow	2
Engages the audience to want to read the book	3
Sound, images, transitions, video are well chosen and assembled to convey the mood/ theme of the book	4
Total	20

Grading Rubric: Summer Reading Visual Collage

	Max points	Your score
Title of the book clearly visible	1
Presents major character(s)	3
Presents the major events of the plot	5
Evaluates <sup>1</sup> aspects of the book (plot, characters, style etc)	3
Easy to follow	2
Images are well chosen and neatly assembled to convey the mood/ theme of the book	4
Creativity	2
Total	20

<sup>1</sup> To evaluate = To make a judgment on the quality of something (what makes it good/bad)