

BIO

Dr. Yolanda R. Rogers, Assistant Superintendent, Human Resources and Professional Development

Dr. Rogers is a proud Lemon Grove Learner with a passion for collaborating with and helping others grow personally and professionally in support of student learning. As a proven instructional leader, Dr. Rogers has worked at the site, district and county office levels. Her career in education spans 23 years with experience as a classroom teacher, literacy coordinator, associate principal, site principal, leadership coach, and assistant superintendent.

Having worked in four distinctly different systems in education Dr. Rogers heart is with Lemon Grove. Lemon Grove is where she has spent half of her career in education. She was a teacher at San Miguel and Monterey Heights Elementary Schools, a site principal at Monterey Heights and Vista La Mesa Academy, and now Assistant Superintendent of Human Resources and Professional Development. Prior to serving the Lemon Grove School District as the Assistant Superintendent, Dr. Rogers spent three years supporting site and district level administrators and aspiring administrators and facilitated professional learning as a leadership coach with the San Diego County Office of Education.

She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Human Communications with a minor in Business Administration, a multiple subject teaching credential and a Reading Recovery Certification from California State University, San Bernardino, a Masters of Arts degree in Educational Administration from Chapman University, and Doctorate in K-12 Educational Leadership from San Diego State University.