DAILY NEWS

A NOTE FROM MR. FERRY - I want to make you aware of a few calendar changes for March and April. March 20th, and April 17th will be minimum days. I will be using these days for professional development training to help address some new needs of students and staff, and I hope these additional minimum days provide students even a small opportunity to recharge a bit.

Yearbooks are still for sale in the ASB office and online at yearbookforever.com for $85 until Spring break.

IN THE WELLNESS CENTER:

Mid-Week Meditation (Sarah Soltani & Courtney Sherlock) Every Wednesday in March, the Serenity Space (wellness center) will be hosting Mid-Week Meditation from 9-9:30am. This is a chance to practice slowing things down to focus on our thoughts, breathing, and light stretching. This will run at the same time/place until spring break. We encourage you to bring your own yoga mat as there's a limited supply available.

Sparks BC2M Campaign Week - Thrive Together club will be sparking conversation, hope, love, courage, and action regarding mental health. Join us for a week-long event.

Dog & Goat Therapy - Come out during lunch on Mondays and Fridays to take a break with some furry pups! Goats will be on campus March 16th only.

FREE Wellness Classes & Community Education at Henry Mayo

Please Register for classes at www.henrymavo.com/classes

Call for Questions: 661-200-2300 New classes are added frequently.

24525 Town Center Dr, Valencia CA 91355

Every Thursday through May 28, Million Little will be at Saugus High School to provide “Creative Arts Studio” from 2:30-4:30pm, where students can safely explore and express their feelings and emotions in authentic and creative ways. This is a “drop in” class and will be located in the ceramics room (B206), where there will be open-ended arts materials for students to explore.

Students please bring your ID cards every day!!

The Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery test (ASVAB) will be offered Thursday, March 12 at 12:30pm in the S Lecture Hall. The results are used to determine qualifications and help the military assign new recruits into career fields. Please come in to sign up for this test in the counseling office.

Lost & Found - Students please check the lost and found (front office) if you've lost something. We have a lot of water bottles, hoodies, and even skateboards, as well as items found in the theatre and gym. Some items have been here for quite a while. Be prepared to give an exact description. Items not claimed before Spring Break will be donated.

The next intramural competition of the year will be the Brett Favre 4 on 4 intramural football tournament. Sign up sheets are in the ASB office and each team must consist of at least four players. Games are played at lunch on the football field. Great prizes will be given to the winning teams. Sign up today!

The Museum of Tolerance field trip for Sophomores, March 16th and 17th has been canceled as of now, with the possibility of rescheduling for a later date.

COUNSELING /SCHOLARSHIP NEWS

The Santa Clarita Valley Bar Association is sponsoring a speech competition related to American history. The top three winners in the Hart District will receive a scholarship that can be used to pay for college. All interested students must email Sarah at info@scvbar.org for an application. All speeches must be submitted by March 30. For more information, please come to the counseling office.

Santa Clarita Arts Association provides scholarships to promising student artists in our community. This opportunity is available to all high school senior art students in Santa Clarita. Students must be graduating seniors with plans for continuing their education in the arts field. The association will award three scholarships in 2020. Interested students should go online to: www.santaclaritaartists.org to apply. For more information, you may pick up a flyer in the counseling office as well.
