COLLEGE PREP
A FORTUNE SCHOOL

Proposition 30 added Article XIII, Section 36 to the California Constitution effective November 7, 2012. The provisions of Article XIII, Section 36(e) create in the state general fund an Education Protection Account to receive and disburse the revenues derived from the incremental increases in taxes imposed by Article XIII, Section 36(f). All monies in the Education Protection Act Account are continuously appropriated for the support of school districts, county offices of education, charter schools and community college districts. Each community college district, county office of education school district and charter school shall annually publish on its Internet website an accounting of how much money was received from the Education Protection Account and how that money was spent.

Hardy Brown College Prep received $469,142 in funds from the Education Protection Account in fiscal year 2018-19. The funds were spent on teacher salaries and instructional supplies as follows:

1100	Certificated Teachers' Salaries	$365,571
3301	OASDI/Medicare/Alternative, certificated positions	$35,722
3401	Health and Welfare, certificated positions	$43,166
3601	Workers' Compensation, certificated positions	$6,614
5802	Printing and Reproduction	$18,069
	EPA Expenditures	$469,142

Monies received from the Education Protection Act Account were not used for salaries or benefits for administrators or any other administrative cost.
