Signing Out After Exams

Students who would like to sign out after the exam session has ended may bring in a signed parent note:

- These notes should be given to the teacher at the beginning of the exam session.
- Teachers will hold on to all notes and turn them in at the end of the day to Mr. Oliver. An example of an acceptable parent note: "Please allow (student name) to be signed out and leave campus at the end of his/her testing session on (day of the week), but no earlier than 11:15."
- Students who sign out must immediately leave campus; students with siblings at Starmount Middle School are not allowed to sign them out early (unless a parent has contacted SMS specifically).
- Except in an emergency situation, students will not be able to sign out before the end of their testing session or prior to 11:15 each day. The office will be unable to call into classrooms. Doing so could cause a test misadministration.
- The afternoon classes scheduled for Monday, May 20th, and Tuesday, May 21st are normal, required classes and attendance will be taken. Students who do not attend these afternoon classes will receive an unexcused absence.

Additional Reminders

- Students should bring #2 pencils for each exam.
- For students who receive read-aloud accommodations, please bring earbuds or headphones.
