

Franklin County High School's September 2018 Newsletter

| 9th grade                                                                                                                          | 10th grade                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| English 1 Literature - Epic poetry: The OdysseyGrammar – Complex Sentences – Identifying and writingVocabulary – Units 2 - 4 | English 2 Reading Accountability Logs will be due on September 26th. These are to be completed on the Eng.II students' 2nd library book of the nine weeks.                                                                                            |
| 11th grade                                                                                                                         | 12th grade                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| English 3                                                                                                                                     | English 4 Seniors are reading the epic poem, "Beowulf" (Argumentative Writing) and working on the Business Letter project. Comp English 1 Comp I Classes are writing narratives. |

For Your Information

IMPORTANT DATES

September 26th -The Co-Lin recruiter will be here to speak with Ms. Dunmore's classes

September 17th- School Pictures
Senior Retakes

September 27th- Homecoming parade

September 28th- Homecoming

VISIT-

HTTPS://FHS.FRANKLINCOUNTYSCHOOLS.COM/

FOR CURRENT NEWS AND UPCOMING EVENTS