Follow the Yellow Brick Road to St. Joe

St. Joseph student actors will take to the Fine Arts stage next week for the school's annual spring musical "The Wizard of Oz."

Opening night is 7 p.m. Thursday, April 11. Other performances are 7 p.m. Friday, April 12, and 2 and 7 p.m. Saturday, April 13. Each production will feature one of two casts.

Admission is $10, with St. Joe students admitted free. Students from the three Catholic feeder schools also will be free if they wear their school shirt to the musical.

Actors, actresses and band members visited St.

Richard and St. Anthony. Catholic schools last week to offer students a quick look at the musical. Read more about the play in the official news release.

If you have a child in the cast, flowers and lollipops will be available for sale in the lobby of the Fine Arts Theater. For $3 you can buy a rose stem or a rainbow pop.
