

Code of Conduct for Students, Parents and Coaches

Culver City Middle School believes that a dynamic program of student activities is vital to the educational development of the student. Middle School programs should provide a variety of experiences to aid in the development of favorable habits and attitudes that will prepare students for life in a democratic society. We believe that the essential elements of character building are embodied in the concept of sportsmanship and six core ethical values: trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring and good citizenship (the "Six Pillars of Character"). We further believe that the highest potential is achieved when everyone consciously Teach, Enforce, Advocate and Model (T.E.A.M.) these values and are committed to the ideal of pursuing victory with honor. Finally, we believe that sincere and good-faith efforts to honor the words and spirit of this Code will improve the quality of our programs and the well being of our students.

The Six Pillars of Character:

- I. Trustworthiness- Be honest, reliable, courageous, and display loyalty to all individuals.
- II. Respect- Treat others with respect at all times, be tolerant and accepting of differences, deal peacefully with anger, disagreements, and insults.
- III. Responsibility- Be accountable for your words, actions and attitudes. It is both an honor and privilege to be a part of Panther programs. Demonstrate self control. Think before you act healthy lifestyles and integrity at all times.
- IV. Fairness- Live up to the high standards of fair play. Play by the rules, listen to others, be open-minded and treat all people fairly.
- V. Caring- Demonstrate concern for others, forgive others, be compassionate, and never engage in reckless behaviors that might cause injury to self and others.
- VI. Citizenship- Do your share to make your school and community better, get involved, stay informed, volunteer, and protect our environment.

I have read and understand Culver City Middle School's Pursue Victory with Honor Code of Conduct. I understand that I am expected to perform according to this code and there may be sanctions or penalties if I do not.
