

CONSTITUTION

WINK JUNIOR HIGH/HIGH SCHOOL CHEERLEADERS AND MASCOT

ARTICLE I. Guidelines for Cheerleading:

Your appearance and your conduct will reflect upon your school. The students, teachers, and judges who chose you for this position did so because they think you will make a favorable impression. You should try to fulfill their expectations.

A Cheerleader's role is to improve the student morale, to boost team spirit and to help Wink Junior High/ High School achieve the objectives of its supporting interscholastic league and other programs. You are to direct the student body in its support of your school's teams. This role makes you a strong influence in guiding student conduct at games and you should maintain the proper dignity in this leadership.

ARTICLE II. Objectives:

1. To promote the type of sportsmanship that will help students acquire the basic attributes of good citizenship;
2. To develop a wholesome school spirit;
3. To develop loyalty to your school and team, regardless of the outcome;
4. To promote a cooperative spirit among the student body, the faculty and the administration;
5. To help your school achieve the objectives of its interscholastic athletics activities;
6. To promote all competitions in which the school participates.

ARTICLE III. Purpose:

The purpose shall be to promote and uphold school spirit, to develop a sense of good sportsmanship among the students, and to maintain positive relationships between competing schools during all athletic events.

ARTICLE IV. Junior High/High School Membership:

- A. One high school squad consisting of ten (10) freshman, sophomore, junior, and/or senior students;

 - 4. engaged in inappropriate behavior and/or public display of affection;
 - 5. failure to meet financial responsibilities within the specified time lines.

ARTICLE XIII. Extracurricular Activities School Day Attendance

- A. An athlete or participant is expected to report on time for school each day. Also, each athlete or participant must make every effort to be in school the day following events. If a pattern of absence develops following events, the coach, director, or principal will take appropriate disciplinary action. That action may range from a warning to suspension from participation for a period of time.

- B. An athlete or participant must be in attendance the day of the contest prior to 10:00 a.m.

- C. If an athlete or participant is illegally absent, truant, suspended, or excused from any part of the school day due to illness, he/she may not participate in a sport activity that day, whether it is practice or a game.
Note: Absences that are approved by the office enabling students to participate include but are not limited to educational reasons (e.g. field trips, extracurricular activities), college visitations, doctor and/or dentist appointments, and funerals.

The Wink-Loving ISD Student Code of Conduct applies to all athletes and their behavior during practice and competition since these are school-related activities. The consequences for any violation of the Student Code of Conduct are listed in that document, and the students will receive those consequences for misconduct as an athlete. In addition, in accordance with Board Policy FO (Local), "with the approval of the principal and Superintendent, sponsors and coaches of extracurricular activities may develop and enforce standards of behavior that are higher than the District-developed Student Code of Conduct and may condition membership or participation in the activity on adherence to those standards. Extracurricular standards of behavior may take into consideration conduct that occurs at any time, on or off school property. Extracurricular behavioral standards shall not have the effect of discriminating on the basis of gender, race, color, disability, religion, ethnicity, or national origin. Students shall be informed of any extracurricular behavior standards at the beginning of each school year or when the students first begin participation in the activity. Students and their parents shall sign and return to the sponsor or coach a statement that they have read the extracurricular behavior standards and consent to them as a condition of participation in the activity. Standards of behavior for an extracurricular activity are independent of the Student Code of Conduct. Violations of these standards of behavior that are also violations of the Student Code of Conduct may result in independent disciplinary actions. A student may be removed from participation in extracurricular activities or may be excluded from school honors for violation of extracurricular standards of behavior for an activity or for violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

ARTICLE XIII. Review Board:

Any cheerleader who fails to maintain the standards of conduct and character required of the organization must appear before the review board. This could include behavior or conduct which reflects unfavorably upon the school and/or the cheerleaders or a violation of the constitution or the Student Code of Conduct or failure to meet other requirements.

A. Membership

The Review board will consist of the following voting members:

1. junior high/high school principal
2. cheerleading sponsor

B. Actions

The review board may decide upon the following actions:

1. The cheerleader may be placed on probation;
2. The cheerleader may be suspended from cheerleading activities for a designated period of time;
3. The cheerleader may be dismissed from the squad.

Cheerleader/Mascot Agreement

I have carefully read and considered the Cheerleader/Mascot Guidelines for Wink Junior High/High School. I have also had the opportunity to ask questions concerning it. I agree that I will at all times abide by the rules and regulations stated in the Guidelines as long as I am a member of the cheerleading squad. I realize that failure to comply with these rules can result in dismissal from the squad.

Parent/Guardian Agreement

I have carefully read and considered the Cheerleader/Mascot Guidelines. I have also been given the opportunity to ask questions concerning it. I understand that if my child is selected as cheerleader or mascot, he/she will be expected to follow all rules and regulations outlined in the Guidelines. I agree, as a parent, to help my child follow these guidelines. I also realize there will be a financial responsibility on my part.
