A Message from Principal Randazzo

Happy 2020 MCS Parents!

We are off and running for the new year! January is full of excitement...2nd Quarter ends on January 16 (printed Report Cards home on January 21), Catholic Schools Week, Talent Shows and a Dallas Choir Tour!

As the 2nd semester begins, please take time to check uniforms. Students have grown and it is a great time to check the length of pants, skirts, etc.

Talent Show auditions begin next week. Please see below for details. The MCS Talent Show is an event you shouldn't miss! These young people are incredible!

Enjoy your weekend!
Principal Randazzo

A Big Thank You!

The Faculty and Staff at MCS would like to thank HSA and the parents of MCS for the Christmas Bonus. We truly appreciate each and everyone of you and your kindness.

Please Spread the Word to Friends, Family and Acquaintances - MCS Pre-K and Kindergarten Information Night for 2020-2021 Admissions and Enrollment
Students and teachers are invited to dust off their dancing shoes, tune up their instruments, or warm up their voices for the Annual MCS Talent Show. To participate please complete the Participation Form below and turn into the front office. For questions, please contact, Kat Mitchell at: office-manager@utmcs.org. Parents and guests are welcome to attend the final performances on January 30, 2020.

New Faculty Member
Summer Millican is joining our interventionist staff part-time. Originally from Oklahoma, Mrs. Millican holds a B.S. in Psychology and Family Studies from Oklahoma Christian University, the M.A. in English from Boston College, as well as a license in Secondary English. She taught middle and high school English in public and private schools in St. Louis, Missouri and Nashville, Tennessee prior to moving to Salt Lake in 2015. Currently, she splits time between MCS and Salt Lake Public Schools as an Elementary reading interventionist. We are excited to have Mrs. Millican a part of our student support team!
