

ATTENDANCE REPORTING

Teachers are to keep accurate student attendance records on a daily basis and report such attendance to the chief district administrator or his/her designee on prescribed forms.

The student attendance record maintained by each teacher shall be available to the chief district administrator upon request.