Observations by Parents, Guardians and Educational Advocates

In accordance with DC law, ITDS permits parents, guardians or a designee with professional expertise in the area of special education (not including lawyers representing parents or anyone with a financial interest in litigation) to observe the child's current or special education program. No conditions or restrictions on the observation may be imposed except those necessary to:

- Ensure the safety of the children in the program
- Protect other children from disclosure of personally identifiable information
- Avoid any potential disruption arising from multiple observations occurring in a classroom simultaneously

ITDS may require advance written notice of the observation.
