The second in a series of four encouraging and independent workshops that engage families in hands on learning using PBS KIDS media. Entire families are invited to participate. Each family must have at least one child within the ages of 4–8 years old. The workshop uses play to introduce both kids and grown-ups to fun and exciting digital and tangible tools that support the development of science and engineering.

Workshop Features:

- Enjoy a catered breakfast.
- Learn goal oriented hands on activities while a playing.
- Foster teamwork, communication and fun with your family.
- Boost grown-up confidence and comfort to support children's learning.
- Learn of canine host extraordinaire Ruff Ruffman.

Workshop made possible by a grant from the Tennessee Department Education– Office of Student Support
