

Proposal to Colorado Early Colleges Board to amend School Accountability Committee bylaws.

V. Membership

A. Term limits: The chair shall not serve more than two consecutive full terms.

Change to:

A. Term limits: The chair shall not serve more than two consecutive full terms “unless approved by the board.”

Extenuating circumstances to support the amendment.

1. Currently we only have one parent that qualifies to serve as the chair for school year 2018-19.

VIII. Meetings

C. A quorum must be present for all matters that require a vote. A quorum shall consist of more than half of the total SAC membership, unless otherwise specified in the SAC bylaws. Only SAC members may vote. A SAC participant is considered a voting member after attending 3 meetings in a 6-month period. A SAC member will lose voting privileges if they have 3 or more unexcused absences.

Change to:

C. A quorum must be present for all matters that require a vote. A quorum shall consist of more than half of the total SAC membership, unless otherwise specified in the SAC bylaws. Only SAC members may vote. A SAC participant is considered a voting member after attending “2 meetings” in a 6-month period. A SAC member will lose voting privileges if they have 3 or more unexcused absences.

Extenuating circumstances to support the amendment.

1. SAC would like to increase the amount of parent members. The SAC believes that parents would have more buy-in if they had voting rights.