FINANCIAL AID FORM

SCHOOL POLICY ON FINANCIAL AID

It is the belief of Presbyterian Pan American School that parents have the responsibility to finance as many of their child's expenses as possible that are related to the educational program offered by this institution. We understand that certain circumstances, such as level of income or other commitments can prevent the payment of the full tuition and other expenses related to the child's education. The Mission Statement of Presbyterian Pan American School states, among other points, that the school exists "to assist students financially according to their economic need as they prepare for college." The School's financial aid program is supported by the benevolent gifts of members, congregations, and governing bodies of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), by grants from various foundations, and by contributions and gifts from ex-students; the program is also funded by the school's endowment fund. Students receive their basic grant by the work they perform during the school year, for example, at the library, the kitchen, the dormitory, administrative offices, classroom buildings, landscaping or the ranch. Students receive additional assistance through grants if their grades and conduct justify it. The student's involvement in community service programs is also considered in providing these grants.

INSTRUCTIONS & REQUIREMENTS:

The applicant needs to meet the following requirements;

- a) The student must have completed all the admission requirements for the academic program.
- b) Parents must explain fully in a letter their financial need and the impossibility of being able to pay the full tuition then provide the 3 most current months of household costs, ex: utility bill, phone bill, cable bill etc...
- c) Ordinarily, the applicant must have an academic average of 85 or better during the previous 2 academic years and in the current one to qualify for consideration of financial aid.
- d) The Financial Aid Committee needs to receive all of the information requested to consider the application. Parents need to state clearly the amount of the financial aid requested on the space provided on the form. Provide the last tax return submitted to the Internal Revenue Service (or equivalent government agency if applicant's family is from another country) and copies of other documents that can support the stated monthly or annual salary being earned, or a notarized document (like a public accountant) stating the total family's monthly income, must be sent with the application. If paystubs are provided please enclose the last 3 current months of paystubs. Also the 3 most current months of bank statements must be provided.
- e) The pastor, priest or elder of the applicant's Church must complete and sign the Church Recommendation Form. The official seal of the church must be stamped on the form. If the applicant is not a member of any church or religious organization then he or she needs to present a letter demonstrating a willingness to keep an open mind of the Christian values and virtues that will be taught here at Presbyterian Pan American School.

FINANCIAL AID COMMITTEE

The Committee determines the amount of the grant offered to each applicant. In reaching its decision, the Committee verifies and studies carefully the financial resources available to the parents, the academic average of the applicant, the degree of participation in various school activities and in his/her church.

- ▶ The maximum financial aid will be 50%. Only in special circumstances will more than 50% be considered.
