Dear Pomelo Parents and Guardians,

Regular school attendance is important for a child to attain his or her full potential. As the new school year has begun, we at Pomelo urge you to make an extra effort to ensure your child establishes a regular attendance pattern and arrives to school on time. Students need to be in class at 8:12 daily. We congratulate those students and parents who are already demonstrating this important goal.

This school year we will continue recognizing all students who achieve Perfect Attendance. The incentives are as follows:

- ❖ The classroom with the highest attendance percentage for each month is recognized at our Monday Morning Greeting with the presentation of “Pauli”, the Pomelo Panther and Lawn Lunch. This classroom also gets their photo on our Attendance Bulletin Board in the lobby, called “Look Who’s Here!”
- ❖ The classroom with the least amount of tardies is recognized with a special trophy at Monday Morning Greeting. Other incentives will be offered for meeting attendance goals.
- ❖ Students with yearlong perfect attendance will receive a certificate for zero absences, tardies and no early leaves. Parents and students are invited to a Perfect Attendance Brunch, sponsored by our on-site YMCA in May.

Starting October 1, 2018 attendance for these incentives will be taken into consideration. Perfect attendance means being at school every day, on time for the full instructional day.

Attendance staff will monitor each student’s attendance pattern. Parents will be notified if attendance interferes with your student’s educational process. Please feel free to reach out to me or Elizabeth Baxter, TSP Coordinator with attendance concerns or issues. We are here to support you and your student’s success at Pomelo any way possible.

We thank you for your ongoing support!

Warmest regards,

Andrea Ferber
