

HOLY CROSS HIGH SCHOOL APPROVED SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES

*These opportunities are listed under the 7 Catholic Social Teaching Themes that you will learn throughout your 4 years of service at Holy Cross.

Catholic social teaching is central to our faith, and is based on our understanding of human life and dignity. These teachings are derived from: the Gospels and the words of Christ; papal statements and encyclicals (letters); and Catholic bishops' statements and pastoral letters. Catholic social teaching calls us all to work for the common good, help build a just society, uphold the dignity of human life and lift up our poor and vulnerable brothers and sisters. All service that we do is based on one of these 7 themes of Catholic Social Teaching if not several themes.

I. Life & Dignity of the Human Person

The dignity of the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society. Direct attacks on innocent persons are never morally acceptable, at any stage or in any condition.

Every human person is created in the image and likeness of God. Therefore, every person's life and dignity must be respected and supported from conception through natural death.

Issues include: abortion, euthanasia, human cloning, destruction of human embryos for research, torture, unjust war, "use of the death penalty," the prevention of genocide, "attacks against noncombatants," racism, and to "overcome poverty and suffering."

II. Care for God's Creation

We show our respect for the Creator by our stewardship/care of God's creation. Care for the earth is a duty of our faith and a sign of our concern for all people.

We have a moral obligation to protect the planet on which we live – respect God's creation and to ensure a safe and hospitable environment for human beings, especially children at their most vulnerable stages of development.

The Catholic call to protect Creation differs from the run-of-the-mill environmentalist groups. The primary difference is that Catholicism seeks to guard nature and Creation not for its own sake, but first because it is God's charge to us, second because of its impact of human health and development, and thirdly because of the beauty of Creation itself. God, humanity, and Creation.

Catholicism sees this as a proper ordering of principles when working out the practicality of environmental issues.

III. Option for the Poor & Vulnerable

While the common good embraces all, those who are weak, vulnerable, and most in need deserve preferential concern. A basic moral test for our society is how we treat the most vulnerable in our midst.

The bishops go on to clearly stress the link between taking care of the poor and our own salvation. SPL has stressed this issue as well.

Issues include: social program for the poor and downtrodden, care for orphans, care for widows, and creating a well-ordered society where the least of us is protected and given the ability to improve his own lot.

IV. Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers

The economy must serve the people, not the other way around. Work is more than a way to make a living; it is a form of continuing participation in God's creation. Workers, employers, and unions should not only advance their own interests, but also work together to advance economic justice and the well-being of all.

Issues include: "creating jobs that uphold the dignity and rights of workers," decent and just wages, adequate security benefits, the choice whether or not to join a union, opportunity for legal status for immigrant workers, private property, and to general economic freedom and initiative.

V. Rights and Responsibilities

Human dignity is respected and the common good is fostered only if human rights are protected and basic responsibilities are met.

The right to exercise religious freedom publicly and privately by individuals and institutions along with freedom of conscience needs to be constantly defended. In a fundamental way, the right to free expression of religious beliefs protects all others rights.

Issues include: primarily guarding the “fundamental right that makes all other rights possible” – the right to life, the rights to procure good shelter/housing, education, employment, health care, and freedom of religion and of family.

VI. Call to Family, Community, and Participation

The human person is not only sacred but also social. Full human development takes place in relationship with others.

The family – based on marriage between a man and a woman – is the first and fundamental unit of society and is sanctuary for the creation and nurturing of children.

Issues include: upholding natural marriage, a defense of the rights of families, a respect for children, and an overall cultural, economic, and political orientation toward the worth of people over mundane ventures.

VII. Peace and Solidarity

We are one human family, whatever our national, racial, ethnic, economic, and ideological differences. We are brothers; and sisters' keepers, wherever they may be.

Solidarity includes the Scriptural call to welcome the stranger among us – including immigrants seeking work, a safe home, education for their children, and a decent life for their families.

As Pope Paul VI taught, "If you want peace, work for justice." (World Day of Peace Message, Jan 1, 1972)

Issues include: humane treatment of illegals – especially their children, the welcoming of cultural/societal strangers, the welcoming of refugees and all vulnerable people, and a general command to work for justice.
