

Greenbrier High

Academy of Advanced Placement and Professional Studies

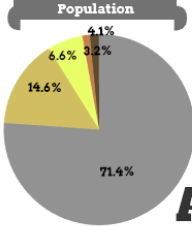

FAST FACTS

One of the county's premier high schools, home of the Wolfpack

The Big Picture

Opened in 1996

Greenbrier High School is one of three schools located in the Riverwood Plantation area, a 3,000 acre neighborhood located along the Savannah River. Most housing in the area consists of single family homes with a limited number of apartments and townhouses.

Top 5% in the Nation by US News and World Report

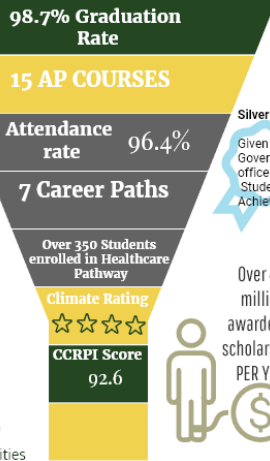

59% Graduates Eligible for Hope Scholarship

77% attend 4 year college
14% attend 2 year college
5% Armed Forces
4% Workforce

AP Honors

Merit - STEM - STEM Achievement - Humanities

WISE GUIDANCE

Silver Award
Given by the Governor's office for Student Achievement

Over 4.5 million awarded in scholarships PER YEAR

Staff

Two self-contained programs for students with special needs are available. The program serves moderately impaired students and students with autism spectrum disorders.

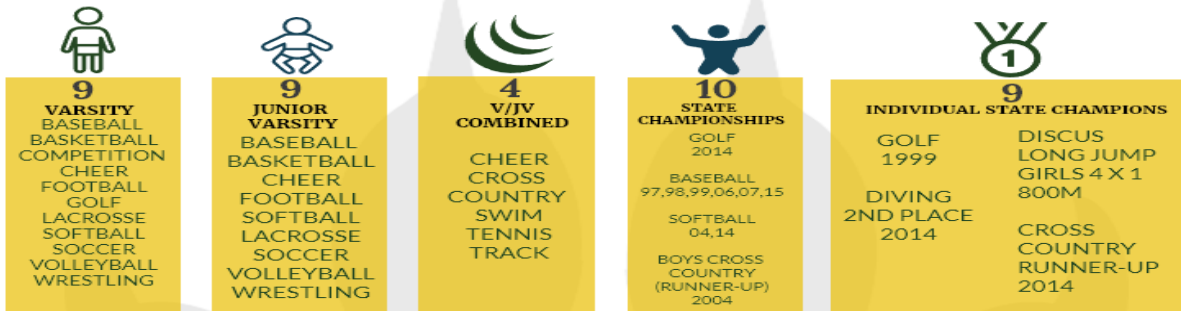

Career Pathways

- Law and Criminal Investigations
- Cybersecurity
- Early Childhood care & Education
- Food & Nutrition
- Graphic Design
- Health Care Science
- NJROTC

No. of AP Scholar Students

- 51 3 or higher on 3 AP Exams
- 20 With Honor
- 48 With Distinction
- 4 National

ATHLETIC PROGRAM

4 GOLDEN APPLE AWARD WINNING TEACHERS

AWARD WINNING

- MATH TEAM
- SCIENCE BOWL TEAM
- FBLA TEAM
- CYBER PATRIOTS
- MODEL UN
- LITERARY
- READING BOWL
- NJROTC

6 ALL-STATE CHORUS MEMBERS
3 ALL-STATE BAND MEMBERS
3 REGION WINS FOR ONE ACT DRAMA 1999, 2000, 2008

Active Clubs

SAT AVERAGE SCORES

ERW - 566
MATH - 551