

PERMISSION TO PUBLISH (Parents)

I, _____, give permission for the creative works of my (parent or legal guardian’s name, please print)
child to be published in the 2019 Reagan Academy Poetry Book. I understand that distribution of the poetry book will be limited to the Reagan Academy community for purchasing and will not be made available to the general public. I also understand that all poems in the book will be organized according to my child’s grade or general age level. I would prefer for my child’s name to be displayed in the following manner:

_____ I would like my child’s first and last name (as written below) to appear with their poetry in the published version of the book.

_____ I would like only my child’s first name and last name initial to appear with their poetry in the published version of the book.

_____ I would like only my child’s initials to appear with their poetry in the published version of the book.

_____ I would not like any of my child’s personal information to appear with their poetry in the published version of the book.

_____ My child may enter the contest, but I do not wish for my child’s poem to be included in the published version of the book. I understand that their poem will not be considered for placement as a grand prize winner in judging, but that they will still receive a prize for entering.

NAME THE BOOK (students)

Students who enter a poem in the contest may also enter the “Name the Book” contest. If we choose the title you suggest, you will receive a free copy of the 2019 book. The last four poetry books were called: Pieces of Me, Dreaming Out Loud, If I were a Poem and Sparks of the Mind. What do you think the 2019 poetry book should be called?

My title suggestion is: _____
