MICAHA STURR | GRADE: HIGH SCHOOL

Favorite colors?	I'm still not six, but I tell the little ones here at school that it's orange, so let's stick with it for the sake of consistency.
Favorite beverages?	I drink Confederate coffee (chicory) both because I like it, and because I like to be reminded that the majority of white men in my country were proud to both blockade the south and die to end the historic injustice perpetrated by the minority. (See, everything is a history lesson!)
Favorite snacks?	I "hide" stuff for hungry high school students to filch, so anything works. I like plantains and pecans for me, and yes, there's a history lesson in there about the marriage of the colonial and corporate systems in there too.
What are some things you would most like to receive?	Hug your high schooler every day for me. They present as too cool for it, but they really want it to happen every day still. I'm proud of them all the time and I'm sure you are too. We need to be vigilant in letting them know. (This really makes my job easier.)
Favorite restaurants?	I love ethnic dives.
Favorite places to shop?	Shopping in all forms enervates my soul.
Favorite sports team?	The Denver Nuggets and the USWNT are open passions. I'm a cultural Broncos fan too.
What do you do with your free time?	I parent as well as I can. It's fun.
What are some of your hobbies?	I watch the Nuggets and spend too much time on NBA esoterica. I read every day. Since I started at Westgate, I play Magic the Gathering again sometimes too. I like board games as well.
What technologies do you use?	I'm a Linux guy. (And these surveys reinforce just how pretentious I must seem.)
How do you like to relax?	Nothing well.
Is there anything you you dislike or can't have / are allergic to?	I eat everything, heartily, except vegans. I never eat vegans.
How can we, as parents, make your life easier?	Hug those kids.

THERESE ELLIS | GRADE: HIGH SCHOOL

Favorite colors?	All the colors
Favorite beverages?	Coffee and Yerba Mate (both hot and cold)
Favorite snacks?	cashew cookie larabar
What are some things you would most like to receive?	Flowers or plants, "Teacher"-themed things, Items hand-made by students, Classroom items such as pens, paper, posters, pillows, books, etc. (I'm trying to build a library for students - so books would be great! Some floor pillows would also be wonderful, for my front room notes takers.), New items for staff/teacher lounge (Keurig cups are always in high demand in the teacher lounge.), Classroom volunteers (I would love some help cutting out laminated items. I'm in the process of making task cards for Earth Sciences (in particular) and any help would be so appreciated!)
Favorite restaurants?	Ali Baba, New York Subs, Zoe's Kitchen
Favorite places to shop?	Amazon, etsy, and office max
Favorite sports team?	Redskins and Broncos
What do you do with your free time?	Music
What are some of your hobbies?	Music
