

CHDP (CHILD Health and Disability Prevention) is a California state program that pays for physicals for uninsured students of low-moderate income families-regardless of legal status.

Physical exams needed for sports participation can be covered annually through the CHDP Program.

Through CHDP, the student may be given temporary full scope Medi-Cal that will cover medical care to remediate current health problems.

Attached is a list of CHDP and other low cost providers located in the Pomona area:
