Final chance to see "The Wizard of Oz"

If you haven't made the trip down the Yellow Brick Road, you have two more opportunities today, Saturday, April 13.

The musical, a recreation of the classic 1939 film "The Wizard of Oz," will have 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. performances.

And the best part about it: You could watch both performances and leave with two entirely different experiences. Why? Because the play is double-casted.

While a few characters will be portrayed by the same actors in the matinee and evening performances (such as the Tin Man and the Cowardly Lion), other characters will be portrayed by different actors in

(for example, Dorothy Gale, the Scarecrow and the Wicked Witch).

Theater teacher Mary Hannah Skelton, who is directing the musical, said St. Joseph Catholic School simply has too much talent. She said she wanted to give as many students as possible a chance to perform in the musical.

Tickets are $10 for either performance. St. Joseph students are admitted free. Students from St. Anthony, St. Richard and Sister Thea Bowman Catholic elementary schools are admitted free if they wear a school shirt.

Holy Week Mass

St. Joseph Catholic School will celebrate Holy Week Mass at 9:50 a.m. Wednesday in the Fine Arts theater. Parents are invited to attend, but come early to get a seat. DRESS UNIFORM REQUIRED.
