On Monday, November 12 the Pleasanton FFA chapter attended the Seis Rios LDE Contest at the Richard M. Borchard Regional Fairgrounds, in Robstown. These contests are designed to help students develop speaking and leadership skills that they will need for the rest of their lives. The Public Relations team placed 2nd and will be advancing to area completion on Monday, November 19th. The team consisted of Meagan Mitchell, Brentley Blalock, Autumn Hagen, and Chloe Bryant. Jr. Chapter Conducting, Jr. Skills, Sr. Skills and Sr. Quiz teams all took 3rd place at the competition. FFA Quiz member, Lacey Stevens was awarded 3rd place high point individual for her test score. Participants in Job Interview and Greenhand Creed Speaking received 5th place. The Sr Radio team finish 6th place. Greenhhand Quiz finish 8th and the Sr. Creed Speaker placed 9th. Congratulations to all participated and good luck to those that will be competing at Area Competition next Monday.
