Attention CUHS Seniors and Parents:

You may choose how you would like your Senior Portrait to appear in the 2019-2020 CUHS Yearbook. Two options are available:

- 1) Submit your own portrait on or before March 20, 2020 meeting the following criteria:
  - The photographer must sign the release form (on back)
  - Photos must be submitted to Mr. Galloway on photo paper suitable for scanning or electronically to yearbook@chowchillahigh.org
  - No professional watermark/logo may appear on the photo
  - Clothing must follow the CUHS Dress Code
  - Your face must be fully visible, clear, and in focus
  - Hats are allowed if no shadow obscures your face
  - You may have a torso shot or a full body shot in a school appropriate pose
  - The photo will be cropped to maximize you in the frame
  - Make sure the focus/attention of the photo is you
  - A tutorial on "Portrait Dos and Don'ts" is available on the Yearbook page on the CUHS Website in "Student Resources" under the "STUDENTS" drop down menu and in "Parent's Resources" under the "PARENTS" drop down menu
- 2) Have a portrait created by the Yearbook Staff here on the CUHS Campus on or before March 20, 2020 (contact Mr. Galloway to make an appointment on a late start day or after school):
  - You may choose from a variety of backdrops on campus
  - You may select an appropriate pose of your choice
  - You may wear sports team, casual or formal attire.
  - You may have an appropriate prop if you choose

If you do not submit a Senior Portrait or have one taken at school, your Aeries photo will appear in the Yearbook.

Sincerely,

Robert J. (Bob) Galloway
