

Family Life Education Summary

Grade: Fifth Grade

Objectives:

The student will demonstrate ability to:

- Compare and contrast how families may change over time.
- Analyze the characteristics of healthy friendships and other relationships.
- Examine the types of relationships adolescents may experience.
- Demonstrate successful resolution of a problem(s) among friends and in other relationships.
- Compare growth patterns of males and females during adolescence.
- Summarize the sequence of fertilization, embryonic growth, and fetal development during pregnancy - via BrainPop.com Genetics video.

Resources:

- Parent/Guardian Permission Letter (School Based)
- Article: www.kidshealth.org/kid/feeling/home_family/blended.html
- Text: McGraw/Hill Gr.5 Health
- Video: Brain Pop Adolescence
<http://www.brainpop.com/health/geneticsgrowthanddevelopment/adolescence/>
- Video: Always Changing; About You, Proctor and Gamble
<http://www.pgschoolprograms.com/programs.php?pid=1>
- Flowchart: <http://www.brainpop.com/health/geneticsgrowthanddevelopment/babies/>
- <https://www.nj.gov/health/>