

SUBMITTED PHOTOS Addison Independent.

Fullerton K's learn about Dr. MLK

The kindergarten students at Fullerton School took time to learn why there is no school on Monday, Jan. 15. The students learned about civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and his efforts to bring about racial equality through nonviolent channels. The students decorated and wore "I have a dream" hats to commemorate Dr. King's famous speech made at the 1963 March on Washington, D.C.

Crafty girls

These two kindergarteners at Fullerton School wear their "I have a dream" hats as a tribute to Dr. Martin Luther King's famous speech, while they work on an arts and crafts project with an adult helper. It was a lesson about why there was no school on Monday.