ACTIVITIES

The Arts:

Choraliers

Advisor: Mark Mercer

Email: mercer_m@fairfieldcityschools.com

The Choraliers are the top mixed choral ensemble of Fairfield High School, functioning as both a show choir and concert choir. The Choraliers performs at local, regional, state, and national events. Throughout its 50 year tradition of excellence, the Choraliers have captured many Grand Champion awards and accolades for Best Vocal Sound, Choreography, and Instrumental Ensemble. Students interested in Choraliers are required to perform both a vocal and dance audition at the end of the school year for the upcoming season. Students who make the Choraliers will be required to enroll in the Choraliers class during the school day for the entire year. Travel commitments both in and out of school will be expected with this ensemble, as are additional after school rehearsals.

Drama Club

Advisor: Trisha Lutterbie, Michael Massie, Jay Muldoon, Mindy Reed

Email: muldoon_j@fairfieldcityschools.com

The Drama Club is a place where students can act, sing, dance, build sets, bring sound to the audience, and light the state. We are comprised of approximately 145 students that assist in creating 4 productions a year. In the fall we produce a main stage (PAC) play and a Kathleen Sullivan Studio Theatre production. We also produce a Student Directed, One-Act Play Festival in the winter and a main stage musical that we produce in conjunction with the Music Department in the spring. Our club is actively involved with the International Thespian Society. We offer student workshops in both stage performances and technical design. While we continue to grow and create wonderful theatre, it is only because of our rich past that we have succeeded.

FortissiBROS

Advisor: Mark Mercer

Email: mercer_m@fairfieldcityschools.com

FortissiBROS is the new all-male show choir created in 2017 by director Mark Mercer to further enhance the growing choral program. A select group of men, this group performs at regional show choir competitions and rehearse weekly after school.

Marching Band

Advisor: Colin Celek, Darren Ling, Maddie Wessel, Jill Wilhelm

Email: ling_d@fairfieldcityschools.com

wilhelm_j@fairfieldcityschools.com

The Marching Band is an extra-curricular group comprised of students in grades 9-12. Any band student who would like to participate within the marching band must be enrolled in one of the band classes within the school day. Over 200 members make up the group which consists of brass, woodwinds, percussion, and color guard. Each fall, the band presents a new show in OMEA and Mid-State marching competitions, both regionally and statewide. The band also plays at all of the High School varsity football games (home and away) throughout the season. The group is managed by a handful of directors and many parent volunteers and they are proud to represent the City of Fairfield and its schools.

Newspaper

Advisor: Trista Allen

Email: allen_t@fairfieldcityschools.com

The school Newspaper will provide news and announcements to students while providing a sense of community and school spirit.

Pep Band

Advisor: Colin Celek

Email: celek_c@fairfieldcityschools.com

The Pep Band is a group of about 75 musicians who prepare and perform music at the High School home basketball games, pep rallies, intramural sports, and other select events. During the winter and early spring months, the group assembles to provide entertainment at these events by performing a mix of popular and show music. All musicians in grades 9-12 are able to participate.

Publication Design (Yearbook)

Advisor: Mindy Montgomery, Tricia Thatcher

Email: montgomery_m@fairfieldcityschools.com

Publication Design (Yearbook) enables students to construct the yearbook using computer layout, copy writing, and photo journalism. Selection of students for this course is made just before scheduling through an application process. Special talents in photography, drawing, computers, and writing are taken into consideration. The majority of student selection is based on attendance records, grades, and extra-curricular activities. The class may extend 2-3 weeks past the end of the school year into June.

Pure Elegance

Advisor: Mark Mercer

Email: mercer_m@fairfieldcityschools.com

Pure Elegance is the all-female show choir offered as an extra-curricular activity at Fairfield High School. Following in the footsteps of the co-curricular "Choraliers" show choir, this group rehearses twice a week and performs at community events and will compete in regional show choir competitions. Auditions will be held at the end of the school year for the following season. Performers should be enrolled in a music class to be a part of this activity. Female students with vocal and/or dance training are especially encouraged to be a part of this talented ensemble!

Show Choir Combo/Tech Crew

Advisor: Mark Mercer

Email: mercer_m@fairfieldcityschools.com

An auditioned group of individuals who support the Fairfield Show Choirs in performances. The combo is a select group of students who accompany the show choirs with brass, wind, and rhythm instruments. Show Choir Combo is selected in the spring for the following year by Mr. Mercer and Mrs. Wilhelm. Show Choir Tech Crew is selected each fall for that year's travels and supports the choirs with logistical support for behind the scenes, light, sound, and set needs. Students interested in either of these activities should see Mr. Mercer in Room 1105.

SPAM (Students Promoting Arts to the Masses)/National Art Honor Society

Advisor: Tricia Thatcher

Email: thatcher_t@fairfieldcityschools.com

SPAM is the High School's student run art club. SPAM also offers opportunities for serious art students to become members of the National Art Honor Society (NAHS). Students interested in becoming members of NAHS will need to fulfill specific guidelines over the course of the school year including but not limited to participating in a variety of activities offered through SPAM and maintain a 3.0 GPA. The purpose of SPAM/NAHS is to encourage students to explore the many opportunities of art and to support the community and school through service. Club members participate in community service activities such as volunteering for face painting and providing art opportunities for younger children and community members, as well as community beautification projects such as painting murals and/or the interiors of local businesses. Students also participate in school beautification activities. In addition to the many service projects both in school and in the community, SPAM also offers students the opportunity to go on field trips and other art inspiring activities. There are many ways you can help SPAM/NAHS: we are willing to accept any type of donations, ranging from ideas to supplies. We are also willing to paint murals in public areas or volunteer at community events upon request.

Thespian Society

Advisor: Mindy Reed

Email: reed_m@fairfieldcityschools.com

The Thespian Society is an honorary organization for theatre students. Part of the FHS Drama Club, the mission of the group is to honor student excellence in the theater arts. The society inducts students active in theater each May.

Tri-M (Modern Music Masters)

Advisor: Maddie Wessel, Jill Wilhelm

Email: wilhelm_j@fairfieldcityschools.com

Tri-M is a National Music Honor Society for serious music students. In order to become a member, interested students in grades 9-12 must fill out an application in the fall which includes signatures from the student's counselor and music teacher as well as recommendation letters. Students are notified of their acceptance and then are required to perform in an induction recital. Members of Tri-M participate in a number of activities over the course of the year including both performance and community service events. Some Tri-M activities include, ushering concerts and performing at nursing homes. Every year there are opportunities for student leadership and socialization. Tri-M also does annual fund raising to help improve our school and promote the arts.

Butler Tech:

BPA (Business Professionals of America) – Fairfield High School Chapter

Advisor: Joni Bachelor, Matt Klaber, Elias Perdue

Email: bachelor_j@fairfieldcityschools.com

BPA (Business Professionals of America) is a career technical student organization with over 10,000 members in Ohio and 50,000 members nationwide. The mission of Business Professionals of America is to contribute to the preparation of a world-class workforce through the advancement of leadership, citizenship, academic, and technological skills. Business students participate in leadership workshops and development, community service, and competitive events. This year, members will compete at the BPA National Leadership Conference in Chicago, Illinois. Membership Registration: To become a member, a junior or senior must be enrolled in the Fairfield Business Academy. Sophomores may also join if they are enrolled in the Business and Management Foundations course. There is a $20.00 membership fee to join BPA; $10 fee for sophomores.

FCCLA (Family, Career, and Community Leaders of America)

Advisor: Casey Haubner, Mindy Moon

Email: haubner_c@fairfieldcityschools.com

FCCLA (Family, Career and Community Leaders of America), is a national organization for students who have taken any course(s) in Family and Consumer Sciences and desire to develop leadership skills, plan and carry out activities that promote the well-being of families, personal wellness, balancing school, work and family, career exploration, community service, managing personal resources, and healthy interpersonal relationships. The heart of this organization is the idea that students generate, organize, and carry out the projects of their choice. There are opportunities for large and small group projects, as well as individual projects. Students who desire may take completed projects to competition and receive recognition at the local, regional, state, and national levels. A participation fee of $17 is paid to the FCS Department.

TSA (Technology Student Association)

Advisor: Chad Reed

Email: reed_c@fairfieldcityschools.com

Skills USA is a national organization serving more than 284,000 high school and college/postsecondary students and professional members in career and technical education training programs. Through Skills USA, students gain self-esteem, pride in their work, leadership, and professional development skills to help them make a smooth transition from school to the workplace. Engineering students and Engineering Technology Foundation students (Manufacturing and Computer Aided Drafting) are eligible to participate in leadership workshops and competitive events related to the engineering programs. Membership Registration: Junior and Senior students enrolled in the Fairfield Engineering Design I & II class and Sophomores enrolled in the Fairfield Engineering Technology Foundations class (Manufacturing and Computer Aided Drafting) will be registered into Skills USA after paying the $20.00 membership fee.

Languages:

ASL Club (American Sign Language)

Advisor: Whitney McKee

Email: mckee_w@fairfieldcityschools.com

The overarching mission of ASL Club is to increase the awareness of ASL with an acknowledgement and respect for Deaf culture. The goals of ASL Club include the following: provide students with various opportunities to interact with the Deaf community, enhance students ASL receptive and expressive skills and increase students' knowledge of Deaf culture. Becoming a member of ASL Club includes the following benefits: frequent information and posting of Deaf events in the Cincinnati area, ASL games and activities, Deaf culture and fun ASL vocabulary! You do not have to be enrolled in an ASL class to join!

French Club

Advisor: Mindy Reed

Email: reed_m@fairfieldcityschools.com

French Club is open to all students who are pursuing French language study. Our goal is to provide students learning French the opportunity to socialize and participate in activities which relate to the French language and culture (through films, authentic food, games, holiday customs, etc.) The French Club typically meets on the first Friday of each month, depending on the activity.

German Club

Advisor: Greg Dodge

Email: dodge_g@fairfieldcityschools.com

German Club is open to any student who would like to learn more about Germany and its renowned culture. The goal is to provide students who are interested in learning about Germany the opportunity to socialize and participate in activities which relate to the language and culture. Activities include but are not limited to films, cooking authentic dishes, games, celebrating traditional holiday customs, etc. German Club meets the third Friday of every month.

Spanish Club

Advisor: Liz Gladish

Email: gladish_l@fairfieldcityschools.com

Spanish Club is open to students pursuing a Spanish language study. The goal is to provide students learning Spanish the opportunity to socialize and participate in activities which relate to the Spanish language and culture. Spanish Club meets the first Monday of every month.

Student Leadership:

AAA (Asian American Association)

Advisor: Kathy Youngkin

Email: youngkin_k@fairfieldcityschools.com

AAA is a cultural organization meant to not only foster a sense of unity between Asian/Asian American students, but to also spread an awareness of the various cultures that exist within Asia. Through participation in various activities this awareness will be enhanced.

Academic Team (Athletics – Winter Sports)

Advisor: Mark Braam, Valerie Meeron

Email: braam_m@fairfieldcityschools.com

The Academic Team is comprised of students who have a love of learning and a desire to compete. Using a buzzer system for answering questions, students of all disciplines take on other academic teams in the GMC. The varsity and reserve teams will begin practices in November, and competition follows in December. Please contact Mr. Braam to try out. We are looking forward to another exciting season. “It’s what you learn after you know it all that counts.” – Harry S. Truman

ACT-SO (African-American Cultural & Technical – Scientific Olympiad)

Advisor: Corey Simmins

Email: simmins_c@fairfieldcityschools.com

ACT-SO is a club which competes in the NAACP sponsored national competition of the same name. Students compete in over 30 categories ranging from the arts, to music, dance, and STEM. Regional winners are sent to nationals where they compete for not only recognition, but scholarship opportunities along with cash and computer prizes.

Anime Club

Advisor: Julie McQueen

Email: mcqueen_j@fairfieldcityschools.com

Anime Club aims to bring classmates closer and create a community that shares a common interest. It’s not just a place to discuss anime – the club wants to help each other grow and become more social in the process, as they leave high school with vivid and beautiful memories of being themselves in high school. Anime is a style of Japanese film and television animation typically aimed at young adults and children. Club activities will include public speaking in front of peers to help club members speak up more in class and to boost their confidence, friendly competitions on anime knowledge, and enjoying shows with some snacks and drinks.

BSU (Brothers and Sisters United)

Advisor: Carol Nance

Email: nance_c@fairfieldcityschools.com

Previously known as African American Voices of Youth, BSU is a student run group that focuses on educating our FHS community about Black History. We hold several events but our main activity is the Black History Month Production. The students help create, write, stage, and perform this wonderful production. All are welcome! We look forward to seeing you!

Car Club

Advisor: Michael Chackfield

Email: mchacksfield@fairfieldcityschools.com

The Car Club is a club for car enthusiasts interested in sharing news, events, educational and career opportunities, performance trends, maintenance, etc. about the automotive field. We will discuss colleges that offer degrees in the automotive industry, careers, and discover volunteer/internship opportunities. Ideas for activities include: repair/maintenance question of the week, local events, project planning and demonstrations as allowed. Our goal is to provide a productive social outlet and to empower students with knowledge, confidence through learning & experience, and open opportunities that may not otherwise be offered. We plan to meet Thursday's after school until 4pm.

Chess Team (Athletics – Winter Sports)

Advisor: Greg Dodge

Email: dodge_g@fairfieldcityschools.com

The Chess Team is always looking for players of any level. The opportunity to become a part of the few, the proud, the elite Fairfield Chess Team is open to absolutely any "mate" who's interested. If you would like to see if you have what it takes to personally be one of the "Kings" or "Queens" of Fairfield's grand chess "Castle", then make sure to come "check" us out in the fall. The clock starts counting down on our season early in November; however make sure to "pawn" everything you have in order to make it to practices beginning mid-late September. If you have any questions or would like further information, please contact Herr Dodge or drop by his room 3309.

Chick-Fil-A Leadership Academy

Advisor: Melissa Blower

Email: blower_m@fairfieldcityschools.com

Chick-Fil-A Leadership Academy is a national high school leadership program focused on impact through action. It engages students in monthly Leader Labs with a focus on important leadership skills that they will use to create student-led Community Impact Projects. The club meets the 2nd Tuesday of every month from 2:40 until 3:40 in Room 1407.

DI (Destination Imagination)

Advisor: Craig Reed

Email: reed_c@fairfieldcityschools.com

The Destination Imagination program is a fun, hands-on system of learning that fosters students' creativity, courage, and curiosity through open-ended academic Challenges in the fields of STEM (science, technology, engineering, and mathematics), fine arts, and service learning. Our participants learn patience, flexibility, persistence, ethics, respect for others and their ideas, and the collaborative problem solving process. Teams may showcase their solutions at a tournament.

Engineering Club

Advisor: Kurt Etter, Chad Reed

Email: etter_k@fairfieldcityschools.com

reed_c@fairfieldcityschools.com

The Engineering Club seeks to aid the students of FHS that wish to learn more about the diverse fields of engineering by providing students interactions with professional engineers, college students studying engineering, and companies specializing in varying fields of engineering. Students will be able to ask questions about engineering, speak one-on-one with professional engineers, and experience how engineers fulfill their responsibilities in the work environment. Students interested in pursuing engineering as a career will learn more about day-to-day life as an engineer as well as what to expect from college and entering the workforce.

FCA (Fellowship of Christian Athletes)

Advisor: Jeff Schuka

Email: schuka_j@fairfieldcityschools.com

FCA is a student-led organization that has over a 30 year history at the high school. Students typically meet once a week before school to encourage and challenge each other in their journey of faith and character development. FCA supports the National Day of Prayer, See You at the Pole, True Love Waits, and sponsors a service project for those in need. All are welcome to attend.

Game Club

Advisor: Angel Lemen

Email: lemen_a@fairfieldcityschools.com

The focus of the Game Club is on card playing games like Yu-Gi-Oh, Pokemon, and Magic The Gathering. The club will discuss strategy and philosophy of the card games listed above, as well as play them. Additionally, others will be educated about these games.

GSSU (Gay/Straight Student Union)

Advisor: Melanie Riedel

Email: riedel_m@fairfieldcityschools.com

The GSSU is a student-run club which provides a safe place for students to meet, support each other, talk about issues related to sexual orientation, and work to end homophobia and transphobia. The GSSU functions as a support group and provides safety and confidentiality to students who are struggling with their identity as gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, or questioning. In addition to support, the GSSU works on educating themselves and the broader school community about sexual orientation and gender identity issues. The Fairfield High School GSSU brings together LGBTQ youth and straight allies to work against homophobia at school and in the community. By raising awareness of different sexual and gender identities, linking homophobia with other oppressions, and advocating for equal treatment for youth of all sexual orientations, the GSSU will help to create a school environment free of homophobia as well as sexual, verbal, and physical harassment.

History Club

Advisor: Matt Reisner

Email: reisner_m@fairfieldcityschools.com

The History Club hopes to spread knowledge about the Mongols, the Huns, the Vikings, and the Germanic tribes. Students will talk about key historical people such as Bjarni Herjolfsson, Leif Erikson, Genghis Khan, Attila the Hun, and more while learning how these groups and people shaped the modern world and their contributions to history. If you struggle with history, this club can assist you.

Indian Spirits

Advisor: Andrew Guenther

Email: guenther_a@fairfieldcityschools.com

Indian Spirits is a club that promotes school spirit for the high school as a whole in addition to various athletic events throughout the year. Indian Spirits is an organization where students are encouraged to be actively engaged with the happenings of the school and who want to support their peers as they compete within the Greater Cincinnati Area. Indian Spirits have supported teams by providing a safe, fun, and exciting way of attending the “away” sporting events by implementing a “Party Bus.” Students share their excitement with the whole school by creating and organizing high school pep assemblies for Homecoming and for various other special events. Indian Spirits is a great way of getting involved while showing your Fairfield Pride.

Interact

Advisor: Erica Wessler

Email: wessler_e@fairfieldcityschools.com

Interact is a division of Rotary Club International and is a youth service organization that promotes leadership and service to the community; members are affiliated with the local Fairfield Rotary Club. We help at food banks and community kitchens, collect/pack supplies needed by those who are less fortunate; we seek opportunities through the Fairfield Volunteer Organization (FAVOR) and provide workers for RASKALS (cleaning the yards of senior citizens and the handicapped), Community Arts events, nursing home visits, and help at animal shelters. We also assist the Rotary with their annual auction and participate in walks for various causes (Cystic Fibrosis, MADD, etc.). There is something for every interest level. We track volunteer hours and award service hours with certificates. Many of our members take advantage of the leadership seminars available that allow students to take part in discussions concerning the state of the nation and the world (UN conference) and the metropolitan area (UC Peace Initiative, Commission on the Homeless & Mayerson Foundation).

Junior Class Council

Advisor: Lori Baird, Karen Frey

Email: baird_l@fairfieldcityschools.com

frey_k@fairfieldcityschools.com

Junior Class Council is made up of seven officer positions, including Class President and six council members. Elections are held in May during the students' sophomore year. Junior Class Council is responsible for organizing the Junior Class Homecoming Float and Hallway Decorating Contest. The Class Council is also responsible for the planning on the Junior/Senior Prom. Other events may include service activities and fund raisers. Students elected must demonstrate leadership qualities and a drive to better FHS.

JSA (Junior State of America)

Advisor: Dan Jacobs

Email: jacobs_d@fairfieldcityschools.com

The JSA is a national organization dedicated to preserving knowledge of the democratic process. Fairfield's chapter is 5 years strong and growing each year. Members who wish to vote for leaders and attend conventions must pay $5 in dues, in addition to the school activity fee. Weekly debates on topics chosen by the students are held each Friday in Room 3108. Debates follow parliamentary procedure, and can be controversial, just like the real world of politics. In addition, members can attend up to three weekend conventions held in the fall (Sharonville), winter (Washington, DC) and spring (Columbus). These involve additional costs but are overall very affordable. Get involved!

National Honor Society

Advisor: Corey Simmins

Email: simmins_c@fairfield-city.k12.oh.us

As it says in the National Honor Society Handbook (1992), "The purpose of the National Honor Society shall be to create enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, and to develop character in the students of the secondary schools." Fairfield High School juniors and seniors with GPA's of 3.5 or above are notified of potential membership in September and asked to complete a student activity information form, due in early October. Final selection is done by a faculty committee of five teachers and students are notified of acceptance in late October. There is no quota or set number of students who may be chosen. Meetings are held the second Thursday of each month during the school year. Members must keep their GPA at or above 3.5 and perform 20 hours of service for each school year they are members.

Peer Tutors

Advisor: Corey Simmins

Email: simmins_c@fairfield-city.k12.oh.us

Peer Tutors is an activity for both tutees and students who wish to help/tutor others. Students seeking help in subjects such as general and college prep level Algebra, Geometry, English, and Sciences could receive help from peers who are either upper level students or students taking advanced courses. There is no charge for this tutoring. The peer tutor benefits from this activity by gaining experience in tutoring and volunteering to help others. Afterwards, recommendations are provided to students seeking them, for use on college and scholarship applications, in addition to hours gained and documented for the same. Tutoring is offered in one hour sessions up to two times weekly (typically on Tuesdays and Thursdays starting at 3:00pm) in Room 2408. Please see Mr. Simmins for more details.

Revolutionary Club

Advisor: Kathy Youngkin

Email: youngkin_k@fairfieldcityschools.com

In Revolutionary Club we learn about and discuss the events that shaped and continue to shape the world we live in, as well as the people and politics involved in them."

SADD (Students Against Destructive Decisions)

Advisor: Nina Rose

Email: rose_n@fairfieldcityschools.com

Empowering students to make positive decisions & to successfully confront the pressures that challenge them. Highlights include the "Toys for Tots" holiday drive and the bi-annual Mock Crash for Prom. We also organize fund raisers for various community needs (Butler Co Children Services, food pantry, etc).

Senior Class Council

Advisor: Anne Swigart, Julie Wiencek

Email: swigart_a@fairfieldcityschools.com
wiencek_j@fairfieldcityschools.com

Senior Class Council is made up of seven officer positions, including Class President and six council members. Students elected as the representatives of the Senior Class demonstrate leadership qualities, are in good standing at FHS, and are interested in the betterment of FHS. Elections for officers are held in May of the students' junior year. The Class Officers will take on many different roles throughout their senior year; they will plan and organize Homecoming Festivities, After Prom, Graduation, Community Service Projects, Senior Blood Drive, and represent the senior class in all discussions with the administration concerning policies, events, and concerns of the student body.

Sophomore Class Council

Advisor: Julie Klint, Amanda Meeks

Email: klint_j@fairfieldcityschools.com
meeks_a@fairfieldcityschools.com

The Sophomore Class Council is made up of seven officer positions, including Class President and six council members. One of the main purposes of the Class Council is to make money for the down payment of the Junior-Senior prom. This is an important fund-raiser, as the money needed for prom is always in place by the end of the sophomore year. Additional activities are decided and organized by the council. We look forward to making your sophomore year a GREAT SUCCESS!

Spirit Club

Advisor: Kate Sanicky

Email: sanicky_k@fairfieldcityschools.com

As students, teachers, and faculty enter the doors of Fairfield HS, they are greeted by cheerful signs and welcoming phrases on windows, walls, and doors. Thanks to Fairfield's Spirit Club, signs created by steadfast spirit club members read many encouraging words. Spirit Club members paint their cars, make signs, have outrageous dress days, and paint their faces to show their true Fairfield pride. These antics add an upbeat attitude to the halls. One of the main jobs of the spirit club is to plan and carry out school spirit events that include supporting ALL organizations.

SPL (Students for a Plant Based Life)

Advisor: Mindy Moon

Email: mindy_m@fairfieldcityschools.com

A place to learn and discuss the benefits of a plant based diet and the benefits of vegetarian and veganism. We will meet once a month in Ms. Moon's room to share recipes, watch informational videos and discuss the topics of animal agriculture, health, and animal rights. The goal of the club will be to educate & inspire students to be more aware of what they are eating and encourage them to make a change.

SLAC (Student Leadership Advisory Council)

Advisor: Bill Rice

Email: rice_b@fairfieldcityschools.com

Empowering student leadership will be a focus this year and beyond at Fairfield High School. Beginning with the 2016-2017 school year, SLAC will combine the building administration with FHS students in a positive, proactive way in order to create an investment in our goals and the overall direction of the building. SLAC will meet four times throughout the school year to talk about our common goals and the direction we wish to take the building.

TREE Club (Teenagers Restore Everyone's Earth)

Advisor: Jen Carroll

Email: carroll_j@fairfieldcityschools.com

The TREE Club not only teaches members about the environment around them, but also how to improve it. Club activities include: visiting local nature preserves and parks, identifying trees and flowers within the area, bird watching, star gazing, hiking, promoting Earth Day and other environmental holidays, and learning to erase the "carbon footprint".

Unidos

Advisor: Aline Hudson

Email: hudson_a@fairfieldcityschools.com

Unidos is a club intended to help the teens of immigrant families go to college and/or gain knowledge and tips on how to be more well-rounded students. The club is not only for Hispanics, but for all students who want to excel in their studies. Unidos will open the mind set of our peers to not only look out for their futures, but to also help those in need. FHS students will improve their outlook of their education and real-life experiences. Participating in Unidos will bring the Fairfield community closer so that we can feel like a family and help guide the Fairfield family to success.
