No scholarships are awarded to new students with the exception of EHG applications. All EHG scholarship applications must be approved by the EHG Committee first. The EHG Committee is responsible for checking whether families belong to the EHG. They do not make decisions about whether a scholarship is granted. Once approved by the EHG Committee, the application can be given to Instituto Bilingüe VICTORIA. Acceptance of this scholarship request will depend on the pupil's performance during their day trial (Nursery aged students do not need to participate in a day trial). Maintenance of these scholarships is dependent on the pupil and family meeting the criteria of the Ejido Grande Committee and VICTORIA School.

Academic scholarships are available to Prepa students who have studied at VICTORIA for a minimum of one year and who meet VICTORIA's academic scholarship requirements. Maintenance of these scholarships is dependent on the pupil and family meeting the criteria of the Ejido Grande Committee and VICTORIA School. There will be one academic scholarship awarded each academic year.

Temporary scholarships may be available to pupils whose families are experiencing temporary financial difficulty. These pupils will need to meet certain financial scholarship requirements. These are temporary scholarships and a scholarship review date will be given if the scholarship is awarded. Certain criteria will be taken into consideration when reviewing this type of scholarship.
