School:

Alliance Patti and Peter Neuwirth Leadership Academy, locally known as Neuwirth Academy, was founded in 2007 in South Los Angeles. Neuwirth Academy's mission is to graduate scholars ready for success in college, and in life. Our educational model is based on key elements including a culture of high expectations for all scholars, a small and personalized learning environment, an extended school day and year, a team of highly qualified teachers and school leaders, and parents as partners. Administrators, teachers and staff strive to ensure that each Neuwirth Academy scholar develops resilient character and strong critical thinking and collaborative skills necessary to become socially responsible, globally minded citizens who are an integral part of their local, national and international communities.

Alliance College-Ready Public Schools:

Neuwirth Academy is part of Alliance College-Ready Public Schools (Alliance), the largest nonprofit charter organization in Los Angeles. Alliance serves over 13,000 scholars across 25 free, public charter schools across Los Angeles County. Alliance's mission is to open and operate a network of small, high-performing high schools and middle schools in historically underserved communities that demonstrate scholar academic achievement growth, and graduate scholars ready for success in college regardless of their background or zip code.

Community:

Neuwirth Academy is located within the South Park area of South Los Angeles, a historically underserved community composed mainly of low-income, working class immigrant families. According to the 2010 U.S. Census, 77% of residents are of Hispanic or Latino decent and 20% are African American; 26% hold a high school diploma or equivalency and only 2.5% have a college degree. Most working families hold positions in the service or manufacturing sectors. Residents of South Park struggle to overcome socioeconomic barriers that result from poor education and cultural isolation.

- U.S. News and World Report Top High Schools Nationwide (annually since 2015)
- Top 2,000 High Schools in Nation, Newsweek (2015)
- JSA So Cal Chapter of the Year (2017)

Neuwirth Academy is fully accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges.

Our charter is authorized by Los Angeles Unified School District.

Curriculum:

All Neuwirth Academy scholars engage in an academically challenging program that requires them to meet the University of California and California State University “A-G” undergraduate admissions requirements. Our instructional team works diligently to implement highly rigorous instruction that focuses on providing the highest caliber learning experiences for all scholars using data driven instruction, blended and collaborative learning, and supportive instructional resources.

Concurrent Enrollment:

Scholars at Neuwirth Academy have the opportunity to take college courses at Los Angeles Trade Tech (LATT) College while in high school. Fall 2018 offers one course: Business.

Grading:

Grading is based on a 4-point scale. Letter grades of “A-C” are assigned based solely on their individual mastery of course standards, as evidenced through assessments. In alignment with University of California and California State University undergraduate admissions requirements, Alliance schools do not grant “D” letter grades. A grade below a “C” is considered Not Proficient or “NP” and will not satisfy graduation requirements. Scholars earning an “NP” for any required course must repeat the course to earn a grade of “C” or higher. Advanced Placement courses are weighted with one extra point.

The average weighted GPA for the Class of 2018 was 3.22.
