Human Rights Month- Activist, Malala Yousafzai

Now 20 years old, Malala became an activist in her home country of Pakistan when she was only 11. She is known for her advocacy for education of women and children where the local Taliban had often banned girls from going to school. Malala was nominated for the International Children's Peace Prize by Desmond Tutu for her blog about her life. On October 2012, because of her activism, a Taliban gunman attempted to murder her. She co-authored the book, I am Malala, in 2013 and was featured in Time Magazine as one of the most influential people. In 2014, Malala won the Nobel Peace Prize for her fight for rights of all children to receive an education. Want to know more about her?
