

THE ROSETTE ROSCKES MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FOR EXCELLENCE IN LEARNING FRENCH

This scholarship was established by Dan and Renay Rosckes to honor the memory of former Assumption French teacher and Dan's mother, Rosette Rosckes. The scholarship is a tuition grant to a current sophomore or junior who is an honor student in French and who plans to continue her study of French each year.

Rosette Rosckes was dedicated to the education of the French language and culture for 20 years at Assumption. Her students were challenged but learned in an environment that was interesting and fun. The Rosckeses have endowed this scholarship to ensure that more young students learn and value the French language and culture.
