National Nurses Week

DeVore Awarded

Century Link Technology Grant

Michael DeVore, Hampton Elementary School Career Specialist, wrote a Century Link technology grant for $5,000 to increase the literacy and computer literacy abilities of students. Michael plans to use various hardware and software to teach Boys Club students about websites, coding, graphic design, resumes, and more. Michael also implemented an alternative reading program competition called Book Adventure this year which inspired many students to read more books. Once the school district received new laptops for the students, the students were able to take online book tests in more locations around the school and at home. Michael intends to launch the reading competition next year and work on tech projects with interested students.

A Big Thank You to our Partner in Education this week.
