

ST. THÉRÈSE OF LISIEUX ANNUAL SCHOLARSHIP

St. Thérèse of Lisieux, “The Little Flower” was a French Carmelite nun whose faith, courage and strength continue to inspire since her death in 1897. St. Thérèse experienced chronic illness until her death at age 24, but it was her unwavering faith through adversity that led to her canonization in 1925.

This scholarship will benefit a student who has been personally impacted by chronic illness and exemplifies resilience in the face of adversity. This $500 renewable scholarship will be awarded each year to an incoming freshmen student, and is renewable annually provided renewability criteria are met.

ELIGIBILITY/REQUIREMENTS

- Young women and young men are encouraged to apply
- Applicant must have received formal notification of acceptance to OLSH
- Family must demonstrate some level of financial need based on criteria set forth by OLSH (as determined by FACTS, OLSH’s third party tuition and financial aid management system)
- Applicant must have experienced chronic illness personally or within the immediate family

SCHOLARSHIP RENEWABILITY CRITERIA

- Maintain a 2.0 (75%) grade point average in all academic courses, monitored at the end of each semester of study
- Maintain an average conduct score of 85 points or higher
