

National Disabilities Employment Awareness Month (NDEAM) 2019:
"The Right Talent, Right Now"

Jason DeShaw is a national award-winning mental health speaker and country singer from Montana. For over a decade he has been a professional country singer performing across North America and Europe. DeShaw has released five albums and shared the stage with national country music acts including The Oak Ridge Boys and Little Big Town. In 2010, doctors diagnosed him as having bipolar disorder and alcoholism. DeShaw became an advocate for mental health by combining his story and songs into a presentation entitled Serenity in the Storm. Since 2013, he has presented in theaters, schools and psychiatric hospitals across the nation. Jason DeShaw's story has touched countless hearts, and he is the recipient of the 2014 Champions Award from the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI). JasonDeshaw.com
