

BULLYING POLICY

Bullying is unwanted, aggressive behavior among school aged children that involves a real or perceived power imbalance. The behavior is repeated, or has the potential to be repeated, over time. Bullying includes actions such as making threats, spreading rumors, attacking someone physically or verbally, and excluding someone from a group on purpose.

Harassment, intimidation, and bullying have a negative effect on the social environment of schools creating a climate of fear among students, inhibiting the ability to learn, and, potentially, leading to other antisocial behavior. The purpose of this policy is to create an environment free of unnecessary disruption and create a climate conducive to the learning process.

Threatening behavior, harassment, intimidation, and bullying are prohibited on school grounds, in school vehicles, at school-sponsored activities, or at school-sanctioned events. Threatening behavior, harassment, intimidation, and bullying by electronic communication is prohibited whether or not such communication originated at school or with school equipment, when the communication is specifically directed at students or school personnel and concern harassment, intimidation, or bullying at school.

Harassment, intimidation, and bullying means any gesture, written or verbal expression, electronic communication, or physical act that a reasonable person should know will:

- A. Harm another student
- B. Damage another student's property
- C. Place another student in reasonable fear of harm to the student's person or damage to the student's property
- D. Insult or demean any student or group of students

Definitions:

A. Electronic Communication-the communication of any written, verbal, or pictorial information by means of an electronic device, including, but not limited to, a telephone, a cellular telephone or other wireless telecommunication device, or computer.

B. Threatening Behavior-any pattern of behavior or isolated action, whether or not it is directed at another person, that a reasonable person would believe indicates potential for future harm to students, school personnel or school property.

SEXUAL AND OTHER UNLAWFUL HARASSMENT

Santa Fe South Schools, Inc. is committed to providing a work environment that is free from all forms of discrimination and conduct that can be considered harassing, coercive, or disruptive, including sexual harassment. Actions, words, jokes, or comments based on an individual's sex, race, color, national origin, age, religion, disability, sexual orientation, or any other legally protected characteristic will not be tolerated.

Sexual harassment is defined as unwanted sexual advances, or visual, verbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature (see §703, Title VII, U.S. Civil Rights Act of 1964; and Title IX of the Education Amendment of 1972). This definition includes many forms of offensive behavior and includes gender-based harassment of a person of the same sex as the harasser. The following is a partial list of sexual harassment examples:

- Unwanted sexual advances.
- Making or threatening reprisals after a negative response to sexual advances.
- Offering employment benefits in exchange for sexual favors.
- Visual conduct that includes leering, making sexual gestures, or displaying of sexually suggestive objects or pictures, cartoons or posters.
- Verbal conduct that includes making or using derogatory comments, epithets, slurs, or jokes.
- Verbal sexual advances or propositions.
- Verbal abuse of a sexual nature, graphic verbal commentaries about an individual's body, sexually degrading words used to describe an individual, or suggestive or obscene letters, notes, or invitations.
- Physical conduct that includes touching, assaulting, or impeding or blocking movements.

Unwelcome sexual advances (either verbal or physical), requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment when: (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment; (2) submission or rejection of the conduct is used as a basis for making employment decisions; or, (3) the conduct has the purpose or effect of interfering with work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment.

If you experience or witness sexual or other unlawful harassment in the workplace, report it immediately to your supervisor. If the supervisor is unavailable or you believe it would be inappropriate to contact that person, you should immediately contact the Superintendent or any other designated staff or Governance Board member. You can raise concerns and make reports without fear of reprisal or retaliation.

All allegations of sexual harassment will be quickly and discreetly investigated. To the extent possible, your confidentiality and that of any witnesses and the alleged harasser will be protected against unnecessary disclosure. When the investigation is completed, you will be informed of the outcome of the investigation. (Please refer to Grievance Policy should you disagree with outcome of the investigation.)

Any supervisor, faculty member, or other staff member who becomes aware of possible sexual or other unlawful harassment must immediately advise the Superintendent or any other designated staff or Governance Board member so it can be investigated in a timely and confidential manner. Anyone engaging in sexual or other unlawful harassment will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

Educational Programs

Educational programs to heighten sensitivity to the nature of sexual harassment are essential to establish an environment that is free from sexual harassment. SFS' educational efforts are designed to:

- Make widely known the prohibitions against sexual harassment,
- Ensure that all individuals are aware of their rights, and,
- Sensitize all individuals to the problems of sexual harassment.
