What is a School-Parent Compact?

A School-Parent Compact for Achievement is an agreement that parents, students, and teachers develop together.

It explains how parents and teachers will work together to make sure all students reach or exceed grade-level standards.

Jointly Developed

Every year LACES holds a parent meeting to inform parents of the Parent Involvement Policy, their rights under Title I and how they could be involved in the planning, review, and improvement of the Title 1 programs at LACES. As a school-wide Title I school, an invite in the form of a trilingual flyer and Connect-ed announcements are sent to parents wishing to take part in meetings where we would address changes, updates, or additions to the Title I involvement Policy and the School-Parent Compact. Approved by LACES School Site Council.

Activities to Build Partnerships

To increase partnership with the parent community, LACES, has the following activities:
- Annual Title I meeting
- Monthly SDM and SSC meetings
- Friends of LACES
- Black Parent Organization
- Korean Parent Organization
- Latino Parent Organization
- Middle School Parent Organization
- Leadership and club programs with local community groups

We have an active alumni network, college and career center, four counselors, Back-to-school night, Open house, parent workshops.

LACES communicates about student academic progress through:
- Bi-annual conferences,
- Reports on student progress at the 5, 10, 15, and 20 week marks.
- Updated Schoology marks
- Schoology and Connect-ed updates
- Volunteering
- Access for observation of classroom activities

These occasions provide parents with timely information regarding curriculum, assessments, and expectations for student achievement.

Teachers, Parents, Students—Together for Success

In the Classroom
Los Angeles Center for Enriched Studies reflects the diversity of Los Angeles with its students coming from many socio-economic, cultural and ethnic backgrounds.

Los Angeles Center for Enriched Studies provides a challenging curriculum in a humanistic school environment offering close and personal involvement among teachers, students and parents.

Courses develop academic abilities, artistic talents, and athletic skills. Teachers use a variety of strategies to engage all students. Teachers work on designing lessons with grade-level and department-level teams.

At Home
Parent-School-Student connection at home is critical to each student’s individual success. Parents can help their child by
1) creating a space at home devoted to completing homework and academic pursuits.
2) monitoring Schoology approximately once a week to check on their child’s progress
3) monitor media consumption
4) check-in with your child about life goals and school
5) communicate with the school when you have concerns
6) participate in school events. When you model a commitment to your child’s success, they will succeed.

Students
- Learn to Solve problems critically and creatively.
- Act ethically, respectfully, responsibly.
- Communicate effectively, precisely, succinctly.
- Embrace and encourage individuality and diversity.
- Support family, school and community.
