Dear St. Elizabeth Families,

Christmas will soon be here! As we prepare for the Birth Of Our Savior, we have been busy collecting and donating to others in the Christmas Spirit. This week, the coat drive concludes as the National Junior Honor Society members prepare the coats to be distributed to the needy. This morning, I went to Jersey City to deliver the gifts for the children of Sacred Heart School. We will conclude our collection of items for Christian Health Care Services on Monday. Thank you for all your generous donations to all of these organizations, you are so generous!

Next week is busy as school closes on Friday the 21st with an early dismissal. Please remember there is no aftercare on the 21st. Tuesday evening is the play, Willy Wonka. Tickets are available at the door, but also in advance. Adults are $7.00 and children are $5.00. Children under 4 are free. Wednesday morning the Pre-K classes will perform their Christmas Concert at 9am in the cafeteria. Later on Wednesday, the 8th graders will present the Christmas Pageant at 1pm in the Church. Friday at 8am the 4th grade will lead us at our Christmas Prayer Service in the Church.

Today your children are bringing home the Christmas ornaments they created and printed on the 3D printers in the tech lab. I hope you will add them to your holiday decorations. Please check the book bags for the ornaments.

There will be a letter next Thursday, but in case you won't be here, Merry Christmas to you and your families. May God continue to bless us as we wait with great anticipation.

Sincerely,

Karen A. Lewis
