Summer Reading Challenge

Complete one square for each month (June, July & August)-- then color each square to create a tic-toe-toe pattern (3 in a row.) The pattern can be vertical, horizontal or diagonal. Please refer to the "Good Fit" handout. Turn in the completed tic-tac-toe handout to your new teacher (with the activities) on the first day of school. This handout (and activities) will earn you a special award and you will participate in a reward celebration!

Read a Good Fit book with an adult. Draw a picture of the 2 main characters. Be creative! Write the characters names under the pictures.	Read a Good Fit book! Make a short video talking about the beginning, middle, and end. Show the video to a friend or sibling.	Read a Good Fit book! List all of the sight words found in the book. Get creative, use markers, colored pencils, chalk, paint with Q-tips or glitter!
Have a pajama party while reading a Good Fit book with an adult. Read the book with a friend or sibling in your pajamas while eating popcorn (or whatever food your parent suggests.)	Go to the public library, get your own library card, (if you don't have one), check out a book -- and read it! (And return the book when you're finished!)	Draw a picture of something you did this summer. Write a sentence describing the picture.
Read a Good Fit book with an adult. Draw a picture of the story setting (where most of the story takes place). Ask an adult to help you write a sentence about the setting.	Read a Good Fit nonfiction book with an adult. "Buddy Read" with an adult. Take turns reading pages (you read 1 page, an adult reads 1 page, etc.) After reading the book, ask the adult 2 questions. Then the adult asks you 2 questions. See who answers the questions correctly!	Read a Good Fit book that has an animal character to your favorite stuffed animal while sitting on a blanket.
