ADAMS, Ma – Berkshire Arts & Technology Charter Public School (BART) is hosting the school's second arts showcase of the year on Thursday, March 8th at 6 p.m. at One Commercial Place, Adams.

The showcase presents students with an opportunity to display their trimester's work to parents, faculty and the community.

Students in grades 6 through 12 will present their work from their visual arts, music, creative writing and drama courses.

The gallery of student work will open at 6pm; media will include painting, drawing, digital photography and sculpture. Music, short story and poetry readings, and dramatic performances will begin at 7pm.

BART is a nationally recognized, award-winning, tuition-free public middle and high school focused on preparing students for college. One hundred percent of BART's graduates have passed a college course and have been accepted into college prior to graduation. BART does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, homelessness or sexual orientation.
