

Need Help Getting Food?

Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank

Contact the Food Bank to learn more about these programs and resources:

Food Pantries

412-460-3663, ext. 456

Call to learn what pantries serve your area.

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)

1-833-822-SNAP (7627)

For food assistance, call to see if you qualify and to get help with the application.

Produce to People

412-460-3663, ext. 727

Call to learn about free produce distributions in Southwestern Pennsylvania.

Senior Food Boxes

412-460-3663, ext. 720

Boxes are available once a month to people age 60 and older who meet income guidelines.

More information about each of these programs is available on the Food Bank website: pittsburghfoodbank.org

2-1-1

2-1-1 is the United Way hotline. Call to learn about local social services and find the resources you need. All calls are free and confidential.

Learn more about 2-1-1, visit 211.org

Women, Infants, and Children (WIC)

Allegheny County Health Dept.

412-350-5801

Food vouchers for income-eligible pregnant women and households with young children.

Meals for Kids

Summer Food

Dial 2-1-1

Free summer meals for anyone 18 and under and no paperwork required. Call to find a site in your neighborhood.

School Meals

Contact your child's school

Free or Reduced-Price school breakfast and Lunch may be available to your child.

Additional Resources for Seniors

Call Area Agency on Aging at 412-350-5460 to learn about these senior food programs:

Meals on Wheels

Home delivered meals for eligible seniors; cost and availability vary.

Farmers' Market Nutrition Program

Receive four $5 vouchers to spend at Farmers' Markets if you are 60 or older and meet income guidelines.

