

Examples of “WHAT COUNTS” towards the ACP- PVSA

COUNTS	DOES NOT COUNT
Volunteering to play an instrument/sing at nursing home. Time spent at nursing home with residents performing, and visiting – counts.	Practice time to prepare to volunteer and perform at the nursing home does NOT COUNT towards PVSA hours.
Volunteering as a peer mentor or as supervised or directed by teacher at Providence HS*. There can be NO incentive provided monetarily or with grades/extra credit as this is considered “payment.” *May NOT be performed during a student’s class time (PE, math, etc.).	Helping a friend or classmate with homework or to study for a test.
Participating in 5K as long as it is for fundraising event either as a runner/walker OR as a volunteer to help out at the event. Please use integrity when reporting time spent participating as a runner/walker in a fundraising 5K.	Participating in a 5K that is not a fundraiser (for example “The Color Run”).
Time spent raising money for a cause (lemonade stand, etc.) also counts towards volunteer hours accrued).	Donating money to a cause.
Volunteering with youth groups for community projects (Habitat for Humanity, Operation Sandwich, Room in the Inn, etc.) or participating in service activities through a school club.	Being part of a leadership club, student council at school or as a member of youth group/religious school. Meetings do not count.
Volunteer work with church, temple, or synagogue Volunteering with children in Vacation Bible School or tutoring children in Hebrew may count as volunteer work.	Volunteer work with a religious organization may count so long as students do not proselytize (to try to persuade people to join a religion, cause, or group). Volunteering for your church, temple, synagogue when it involves participation in religious rituals does NOT count (for example: serving as an altar server, preparing or giving sermons, assisting clergy with religious rituals or services,

Volunteering to drive a person coming to your church, temple, or synagogue to do charity work counts.	lighting candles in synagogue, singing/dancing/performing during a religious service, etc. does not count) Giving up your room/bed to host a missionary or other public sector worker does not count.
Babysitting in a faith-based nursery, daycare, women or men’s shelter, or community center counts.	Babysitting for friends or family or for any compensation does not count.
Volunteering with language club, or other school sponsored clubs - in the community - may count towards the PVSA.	Hosting a foreign exchange student is a wonderful thing to do, but does not count as volunteer work.
Preparing and delivering food or other necessities to others in need as part of a volunteer position with a community based organization counts.	Helping a friend, family member, or neighbor in crisis is a wonderful thing to do, and often is the right thing to do; however, this help does not qualify as “volunteer work” in the community.