

Superintendent's Welcome

Janice Sykora was named Superintendent of Woodsboro ISD on December 18, 2017, during a meeting of the Board of Trustees. She had served as Interim Superintendent since August 7, 2017.

“I expect the best for our students and staff. As a district and community I believe we must set and maintain high expectations for all involved in the academic and athletic setting,” she stated. “It is my goal that the students have an excellent education that prepares them to be productive citizens with a successful future.”

In her public school career, she has worked as a superintendent, interim superintendent, assistant superintendent, curriculum director, principal, classroom teacher, and educational consultant. She earned a Master's degree from Texas A&M - Corpus Christi and a Bachelor's degree from Texas A&M - Kingsville.
