Our Lady of the Assumption Catholic Community

2 Reaching out to the ‘little ones’

This week’s readings teach us that living as Christian stewards requires us to swim against the tide of our “me-first” culture and stake out a path for our lives that may be different from that of our neighbors, friends or co-workers.

Jesus illustrates in today’s Gospel. “Taking a child, He placed it in their midst, and putting His arms around it, He said to them, ‘Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me, and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me.’”

In this context, Christ is speaking not only of youngsters, but all “little ones,” those who are vulnerable or needy in any way – through poverty, physical or mental illness, advanced age, difficult family situations – the brothers and sisters St. Teresa of Calcutta would call “Jesus in distressing disguise.”

They are all around us if we open our eyes. Like Jesus, we can put our arms around the little ones in our world and channel some of our energy, ambition and talent towards them.

Giving the best of ourselves to these brothers and sisters may be a little messy at times. It may put us in situations that are far outside our comfort zones. Maybe our colleagues and neighbors will not understand our actions. But in reaching out to little ones in Jesus’ name, it is Jesus Himself we are touching. And that is a most privileged way of life.

This week, ask the Lord for the wisdom to see the little ones in your neighborhood, community, or this parish and to show you concretely how you can reach out to them. Take at least one step. You will be stepping closer to Jesus Christ Himself.

Grace gratitude generosity

“Taking a child, he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, ‘Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me.’” The Gospel this week praises those who serve the little ones among us.

Thanks for the memories at OLA picnic
Organizers and parents observed that the recent OLA picnic would probably be a lasting and happy memory for children who enjoyed popsicles, jumpers, bubbles, photo booth and paddle ball. Adults, too, enjoyed the wonderful barbecue and entertainment. There was a good turn-out from English, Spanish and Vietnamese families. It's never too late for thanks to our donors, our hard-working volunteers who prepped and served, and the Knights of Columbus who outdid themselves with great grilling! Hats off to our deejay and Spanish musicians who enlivened the night. Special thanks to staff liaisons Cindy Corrales and Jean McKenna, and the facilities team under Randy Rohrer. It was a beautiful evening.

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

Últimamente, hay mucho interés en los ángeles y sobre todo en los arcángeles. Según el catecismo católico, los ángeles existen para glorificar y servir a Dios y para ayudar con el plan salvífico de Jesucristo, cooperando con nuestras buenas obras. Lamentablemente muchos, en especial los de la New Age, se interesan sólo en los ángeles con el fin de utilizarlos en lugar de dejarse guiar por ellos.

La Tradición ha designado una jerarquía de 9 rangos entre los seres espirituales. Los serafines son los primeros y más cercanos a Dios y los ángeles son los últimos y más cercanos a la humanidad. En esta jerarquía, los arcángeles son los penúltimos en poder, aunque sí son los más buscados por su responsabilidad de cuidar los cuatro puntos cardinales de la creación. Según la tradición hebrea, hay siete arcángeles (Tobías 12:15), de los cuales las Sagradas Escrituras sólo mencionan tres por nombre, Miguel (¿Quién como Dios?), Gabriel (hombre de Dios) y Rafael (Dios sana). De estos, Miguel parece ser el más popular gracias a su poder contra el mal.

Reflexionemos sobre la Palabra de Dios

CÓMO TRATAMOS AL MENSAJERO

No debemos precipitarnos a definir quiénes son “los malvados” y quiénes (es decir nosotros) son los justos. Tendemos a clasificar rápidamente a los demás como malos, porque solemos considerarnos buenas personas. No nos gusta que una voz profética nos critique con malas noticias sobre nuestro propio comportamiento. No nos gusta que nos reprochen que hemos transgredido la ley ni que nos acusen de no haber actuado acorde a nuestra formación.

Puede que condenemos e insultemos a quienes nos enfrentan a estas verdades sobre nosotros mismos, pero si fuéramos realmente buenos, les agradeceríamos por ayudarnos a permanecer en el camino correcto. Éste es el trato que le dieron a los profetas y el trato que le dieron a Jesús. ¿Es éste también el trato que les damos a las personas cuyos mensajes no nos gustan?

Bishop David O'Connell joined clergy at OLA for a Sept. 12 a Mass of Healing for victims of sexual abuse, for the Church at large, and for Church leaders addressing the crisis of abuse.

Prayer for Healing

God of endless love, ever caring, ever strong, always present, always just; You gave your only Son to save us by the blood of his cross

Gentle Jesus, shepherd of peace, join to your own suffering the pain of all who have been hurt in body, mind and spirit by those who betrayed the trust placed in them.

Hear our cries as we agonize over the harm done to our brothers and sisters. Breathe wisdom into our prayers, soothe restless hearts with hope, steady shaken spirits with faith: show us the way to justice and wholeness, enlightened by truth and enfolded in your mercy.

Holy Spirit, comforter of hearts, heal your people's wounds and transform our brokenness, Grant us courage and wisdom, humility and grace, so that we may act with justice and find peace in you, through Christ, our Lord. Amen

Respond to recent crisis by writing a letter...

A grand jury in Pennsylvania reported recently on cases of sexual abuse and cover-up in the Catholic Church. You are invited to continue the dialog begun by Bishop O'Connell on Sept. 12. Bring a letter to the OLA parish office or mail it directly to these Church officials:

Sept. 12 dialog with Bishop O'Connell

Last week, Bishop O'Connell presided at a service of healing for victims of the Church abuse crisis, and held a short Q and A afterwards. This dialogue is set to continue.

There are excellent resources available, and I recommend Bishop Barron's Word on Fire ministry at www.wordonfire.org. I also urge everyone to subscribe to Angelus News, an award winning online magazine at www.angelusnews.com that gives thorough and honest commentary on what is happening in our Church. A recent headline, for example, concerns Archbishop Gomez' meeting with Pope Francis on how the Church in the United States has been "lacerated by the evil of sexual abuse." As members of a Catholic community we are all affected, and we must stay alert to what is being said and not said. Deacon Bob Steighner has invited us all to reach out and be heard. Letters to the bishops, priests and pope may be dropped off at the office, and Deacon Bob will forward them.

The OLA Safeguard the Children Committee oversees what is being done here to protect our children, in the school, faith formation, youth ministry etc. to make sure that we all adhere to the Archdiocesan policies on child safety. Their work encompasses that which affects children's wellbeing.

Bernadette Boyle, Principal of OLA School
