

HOW TO REFERENCE: A JOURNAL ARTICLE

MLA 8

In-text citation:

... (author page).

Teachers play a critical role in developing students' intercultural competence (Taylor 72).

... author... (page).

Taylor suggests teachers play a critical role in developing students' intercultural competence (72).

"..." (author page).

"in an international school our cocktails of cultures are stirred but rarely shaken" (Taylor 65).

Works Cited:

Author, first name. "Title of article." Journal title Container, (where found, if applicable)

Taylor, Simon. "Globally-minded Students: Defining, Measuring and Developing Intercultural Sensitivity." The International Schools Journal, vol. 33, no. 1, Nov. 2013, pp. 65-75. ProQuest Education Journals, search.proquest.com/docview/1508228699?accountid=74409. Accessed 4 Mar. 2015.

Volume number,
Issue number,

Date
published,

Page(s),

Date
retrieved.
(optional but recommended)

URL or DOI number.
If accessed via the web